

ADVANCED GUIDEWAY SYSTEM (AGS) FEASIBILITY STUDY TECHNOLOGY FORUM December 13-14, 2012 – Golden, CO

EVENT OVERVIEW

Who/What: Qualified technology providers (as determined by CDOT's Request for Statements of Technology Information/RFSOTI process) are invited to exhibit and present information about their technologies at this two-day forum.

The audience will include members of the AGS Feasibility Study Technical Committee, Project Leadership Team (PLT), consultant team, CDOT commissioners and staff, elected officials and other I-70 Mountain Corridor stakeholders. The Technology Exhibition hall will be open to the public from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, December 13.

Select technology providers will also be asked to present to the AGS Feasibility Study Technical Committee and PLT (Review Panel) at assigned times on December 13 and 14. These presentations will provide the group with a deeper understanding of a cross-section of technology types that could operate in different alignments. The presentations will include proprietary information, so they are not open to the public.
