

I-25 South Gap Project Construction Management Team Organization Chart

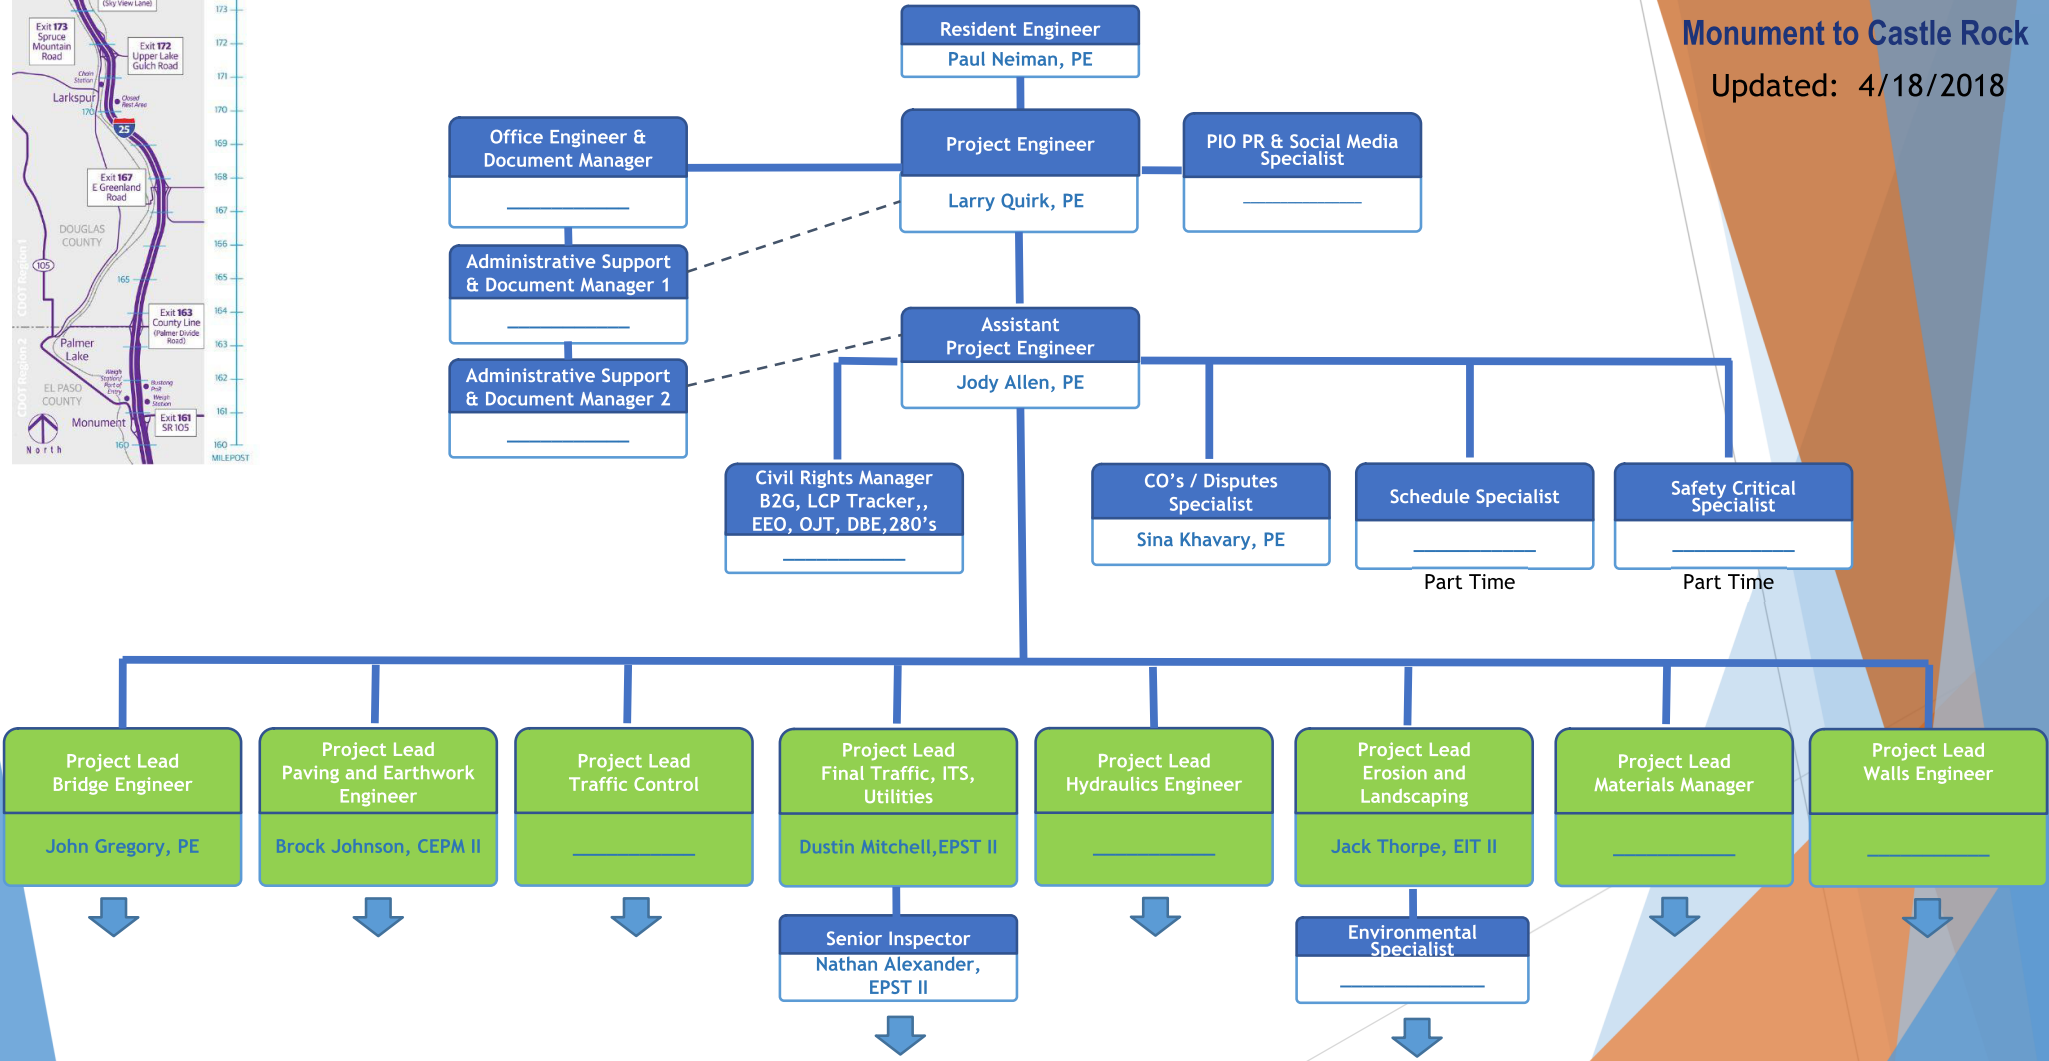

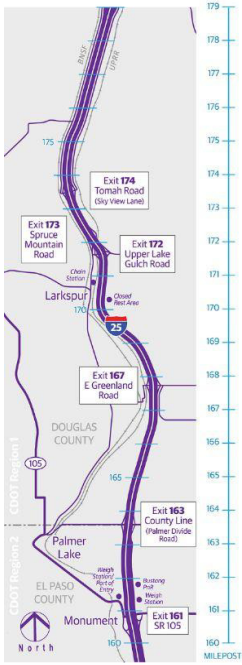

COLORADO
Department of Transportation

I-25 South Gap Project

Monument to Castle Rock

Updated: 4/18/2018

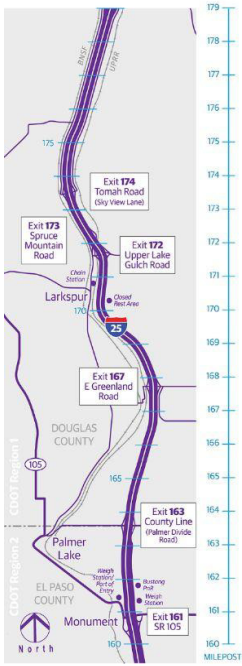

I-25 South Gap Project Construction Management Team Organization Chart Descriptions of Responsibilities

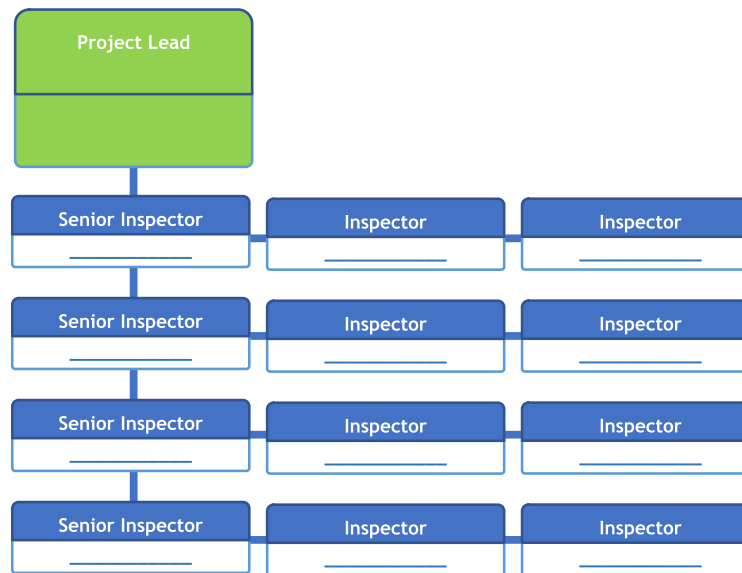

I-25 South Gap Project

Monument to Castle Rock

Updated: 4/18/2018

Project Lead's shall be fully competent in their assigned discipline. Shall be tasked with supervising many senior and junior inspectors. Duties will include supervision of employees work schedules, mentoring, assigning task, problem solving, interpretation of plans and specifications, Identify and provide Change Order information to CO Specialist. Shall keep Project Engineer and Assistant Project Engineer apprised of discipline activities and project milestones

Senior Inspectors should be experienced with heavy highway construction and documentation with CDOT experience preferred in the discipline assigned. Duties include preparation of all QA documents for progress estimates, mentoring junior inspectors, direct day to day oversight of work for conformance to plans and specifications. Reports directly to the Project Leads.

Inspectors shall perform required QA inspection duties, report writing and checking, daily project diaries, photo diaries, and any other documentation necessary to support the progress estimates.