To: Users of the CDOT Roadway Design Guide

From:  Larry Brinck, Standards and Specifications Engineer

Subject: Chapters 8, 15, and 16 of the 2005 CDOT *Roadway Design Guide

This is formal issuance of a minor revision to the 2005 CDOT Roadway Design Guide and two newly-completed auxiliary chapters of the guide. This issuance includes:

- Revised Chapter 8, Freeways – The first paragraph of this chapter now includes a reference to AASHTO's A Policy on Design Standards – Interstate System.
- Chapter 15, Bridge – The Design Guide Team recently completed this chapter.
- Chapter 16, Construction Specifications – The Design Guide Team recently completed this chapter.
- Table of Contents and Index – Both now include Chapters 15 and 16.

You may access and print the entire guide, including these new portions, from the Design and Construction Project Support page of the CDOT web site:

<http://www.dot.state.co.us/DesignSupport/>

You may begin using these additions to the 2005 guide immediately. A team of CDOT and FHWA Engineers developed these chapters. The team will continue to work on the remaining auxiliary chapters which will be posted on the CDOT web site as they are completed. Once all the auxiliary chapters are complete CDOT will issue a printed version of the entire guide.
