1. Describe your major areas of work experience/expertise: My practice has consisted of 39 years of interaction with and litigation at numerous state and federal agencies, with a concentration in the area of transportation law. Coupled with that experience is a history of commercial litigation in state and federal court of numerous claims, including construction-related claims. I regularly act as an arbitrator in arbitration proceedings before the American Arbitration Center and the International Centre for Dispute Resolution, where I have decided claims in arbitration ranging
2. Describe your experience with construction claims: In the course of a long career in commercial litigation, a significant portion of claims I have litigated include lien disputes, adequacy of construction quality, and like matters. I recently negotiated and successfully resolved a dispute involving construction of a large truck terminal in Henderson, Colorado. I am presently engaged in a dispute involving the quality of construction of a newly completed goat dairy near Buena Vista, CO which will likely go to
3. Describe your knowledge of construction contract law:

As a licensed attorney for 39 years, it has been my practice to carefully review applicable Colorado law regarding construction quality and contracting issues of all kinds in disputes referred to me for representation in litigation and arbitration.

4. Describe your experience with construction contract administration:

I have not previously administered performance of any construction contract .

5. Describe your construction field experience:

6. Describe your DRB (or arbitration) training, certification, and experience:

I have acted as an arbitrator for the American Arbitration Association and the International Centre for Dispute Resolution for approximately 17 years. In the course of maintaining my appointment to the Roster of Neutrals maintained by both organizations it has been necessary for me to complete numerous training regimes to maintain such appointments. I have also attended numerous workshops and continuing legal education sessions sponsored by the American Arbitration Association. I have acted as arbitrator, to the best of my recollection, in approximately fifteen such disputes. I have also acted as counsel to numerous parties in arbitration, the most recent involving a claim in arbitration against a large provider of satellite television service in which the award in our client's favor was approximately $1 million.
