CDOT proposes to establish a new compensation-based approach within the rules for permitting and enforcement of outdoor advertising devices in areas near interstates and state highways and visible to the traveling public from the roadway. procedures will be modified to allow an applicant who was denied a permit to request an expedited hearing within 30 days of the notice of denial. The proposed rules also clarify that Changeable Electronic Variable Message Signs may not be within 1000 feet of each other that are facing the same direction. The materials incorporated by reference will be updated. A new proposed rule will be added to allow interested and affected parties to petition for a declaratory order to increase transparency and be in compliance with the Colorado Administrative Procedure Act. Finally, other non-substantive changes will be made.

- B. Contents of the Petition
 - 1. The name of address of the petitioner.

- C. The Executive Director Retains Discretion Whether to Entertain Petition.

The Executive Director or designee will determine, in their sole discretion without prior notice to the petitioner, whether to entertain any petition. If the Executive Director or designee decides not to entertain a petition, the Department will notify the petitioner in writing of its decision and the reasons for that decision.  order in question.

- The Executive Director or designee may expedite the matter by ruling on the basis of the facts and legal authority presented in the petition, or by requesting the parties to submit additional evidence and legal argument in writing.
- In the event the Executive Director or designee determines that an evidentiary hearing is necessary to a ruling on the petition, a hearing will be conducted in accordance with the State Administrative Procedure Act, § 24-4-101, C.R.S. et seq. The petitioner will be identified as Respondent.

- The parties to any proceeding pursuant to this Rule will be the petitioner/Respondent and the Department. Any other interested person(s) may seek leave of the Department to intervene in the proceeding and such leave may be granted if the Department determines that such intervention will make a separate petition by the interested person(s) for a separate declaratory order unnecessary.
- 4. The declaratory order will constitute a Final Agency Order subject to judicial review pursuant to § 24-4-106, C.R.S.

II. Subject

Senate Bill 21-263 took effect in Colorado on June 30, 2021, changing the permitting and enforcement processes for the control of advertising devices in areas near interstates and state highways and visible to the traveling public from the roadway to a compensation-based approach.

The specific purpose of this rulemaking is to consider changes to align CDOT's processes for permitting and enforcement of outdoor advertising devices with Senate Bill 21-263. CDOT proposes the following rule changes:

- Establish a new compensation-based approach within the rules for permitting and enforcement of outdoor advertising devices in areas near interstates and state highways and visible to the traveling public from the roadway.
- Remove the previous categories of outdoor advertising devices (i.e., On-Premise Sign, Off-Premise Sign, Official Sign, and Directional Sign) from the rules.

- Redefined the definition of "Advertising Device" to reference the definition in statute.
- Add the new definition of "Compensation" to reference the definition in statute.
- Modify the noncompliance requirements to give a property owner or sign owner the option to execute an affidavit under the penalty of perjury in the event the property owner or sign owner does not believe their sign is an advertising device requiring a CDOT permit.
- Streamline the hearing procedures and also modify the procedures to allow an applicant who was denied a permit to request an expedited hearing within 30 days of the notice of denial.
- Clarify that Changeable Electronic Variable Message Signs may not be within 1000 feet of each other that are facing the same direction.
- Update the materials incorporated by reference within the rules.
- Add procedures for interested and affected parties to petition for a declaratory order to increase transparency for the public and be in compliance with the Colorado Administrative Procedure Act.
- Finally, make other non-substantive changes to align the rules with Senate Bill 21-263 and fix typographical or grammatical errors.

A detailed Statement of Basis, Purpose, and Specific Statutory Authority follows this notice and is incorporated by reference.

III. Statutory Authority

The specific authority under which the Executive Director of CDOT shall establish these rules is set forth in §§ 43-1-105(6), 43-1-414(4), and 43-1-415, C.R.S.

Please note that the proposed rule revisions being considered are subject to further changes and modifications after the public hearing and the deadline for the submission of written comments.

V. Opportunity to testify and submit written comments

Notice of Proposed Rulemaking

Executive Director
Rules Governing Outdoor Advertising in Colorado
2 CCR 601-3

Proposed Statement of Basis and Purpose and Statutory Authority

I. Rules

The rules governing outdoor advertising in Colorado are found at 2 CCR 601-3.

II. Statement of Basis & Purpose

The purpose of these rules is to carry out the provisions of Colorado's Outdoor Advertising Act found at § 43-1-401, et seq., C.R.S., and the Highway Beautification Act of 1965 found at 23 U.S.C. § 131 by establishing a statewide uniform program controlling the use of advertising devices in areas adjacent to the State Highway System. The intent of these rules is to protect and promote the health, safety, and welfare of the traveling public and the people of Colorado, and to promote the reasonable, orderly and effective display of outdoor advertising, while preserving and enhancing the natural and scenic beauty of Colorado.

Senate Bill 21-263 took effect in Colorado on June 30, 2021, changing the permitting and enforcement processes for the control of advertising devices in areas near interstates and state highways and visible to the traveling public from the roadway to a compensation-based approach.

The specific purpose of this rulemaking is to consider changes to align CDOT's processes for permitting and enforcement of outdoor advertising devices with Senate Bill 21-263. Proposed changes include:

- Add, modify, or delete defined terms to aid in the interpretation and implementation of these Rules as follows:
 - Modify the definitions of "Advertising Device" and "Comprehensive Development" to reference the definitions in statute for consistency.

Adoption of Emergency Rules Governing Outdoor Advertising in Colorado, 2 CCR 601-3

Senate Bill 21-263 took effect in Colorado on June 30, 2021, changing the permitting and enforcement process for the control of outdoor advertising devices in areas near interstates and state highways and visible to the traveling public from the roadway to a compensation-based approach.

Colorado requires owners of outdoor advertising devices (i.e., billboards and signs) to obtain a permit from Colorado Department of Transportation ("CDOT"), including additional requirements on size, lighting, spacing and zoning for these devices.

Prior to Senate Bill 21-263, state law previously classified outdoor advertising devices into four categories to determine whether a CDOT permit was required. These four categories previously included:

- On-Premise Sign: A device that advertises services or products conducted on the premises upon which the sign is located (i.e., a fast-food restaurant sign visible from I-25).
- Off-Premise Sign: A device that advertises services or products not conducted on the premises upon which the sign is located (i.e., a billboard that advertises the Colorado Lottery).
- Official Sign: A device erected for a public purpose (i.e., the "Welcome to Colorful Colorado" sign).
- Directional Sign: A device that directs the traveling public to publicly or privately owned natural phenomena or to historic, cultural, scientific, educational and religious sites and areas of natural scenic beauty or outdoor recreation.

Previously, only Off-Premise and Directional Signs required a CDOT permit. However, On-Premise and Official Signs were allowed without a CDOT permit with certain restrictions.

For enforcement purposes, CDOT monitors interstates and state highways for outdoor advertising devices that needed permits. Under the old state law, to determine whether a sign needed a permit, CDOT arguably had to review the words and pictures of the device to figure out the type of sign it was. Recently, federal courts across the country have said this arguably content-based distinction may be a violation of free speech.

As a result, Senate Bill 21-263 removes the arguably content-based distinction from state law and establishes a new compensation-based approach for permitting and enforcement. Now, under the new state law only outdoor advertising devices visible from the roadway that generate compensation require a CDOT permit. Compensation means the exchange of anything of value, including but not limited to money, as further defined in the new state law.

The immediate adoption of emergency rules is necessary to align CDOT's processes for permitting and enforcement of outdoor advertising devices with the new state law under Senate Bill 21-263. The emergency rules support CDOT's control of the use of outdoor advertising devices in areas near interstates and state highways to protect and promote the health, safety, and welfare of the traveling public by reducing driver distractions and preserving the natural and scenic beauty of Colorado.

Pursuant to the authority granted by § 43-1-105(6), § 43-1-107, § 24-4-103(6)(a), § 43-1-414(4), and § 43-1-415, C.R.S., the CDOT Executive Director adopts emergency rules governing outdoor advertising in Colorado, 2 CCR 601-3.

RULES GOVERNING OUTDOOR ADVERTISING IN COLORADO

2 CCR 601-3

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF EMERGENCY RULES

Pursuant to and in compliance with Title 43, Article 1 and Title 24, Article 4, C.R.S. as amended, notice is given of the adoption on an emergency basis for the rules governing outdoor advertising in Colorado.

Section 1. Statement of Basis and Auth

Section 2. Statement of Purpose

Section 3. Applicability

Section 4. Rules Governing Outdoor Advertising in Colorado

Section 5. Effective Date

Section 1. Statement of Basis and Authority

The purpose of the rules is to carry out the provisions of § 43-1-401, C.R.S. et seq., and the Highway Beautification Act of 1965, 23 U.S.C. 131, 23 C.F.R. 750.705(h) by establishing a statewide uniform program controlling the use of outdoor advertising devices (i.e., billboards and signs) in areas adjacent to the State Highway System. The intent of the rules is to protect and promote the health, safety, and welfare of the traveling public and the people of Colorado, and to promote the reasonable, orderly and effective display of outdoor advertising, while preserving and enhancing the natural and scenic beauty of Colorado.

Senate Bill 21-263 took effect in Colorado on June 30, 2021, changing the permitting and enforcement processes for the control of advertising devices in areas near interstates and state highways and visible to the traveling public from the roadway to a compensation-based approach.

The statutory basis and authority for the emergency rules is granted under § 43-1-105(6), § 24-4-103(6)(a), § 43-1-414(4), and § 43-1-415, C.R.S.

Section 2. Statement of Purpose

Colorado requires owners of advertising devices to obtain a permit from the Colorado Department of Transportation ("CDOT"), and there are requirements on size, lighting, spacing and zoning for these devices.

Prior to Senate Bill 21-263, state law previously classified outdoor advertising devices into four categories to determine whether a CDOT permit was required. These four categories previously included:

- On-Premise Sign: A device that advertises services or products conducted on the premises upon which the sign is located (i.e., a fast-food restaurant sign visible from I-25).
- Off-Premise Sign: A device that advertises services or products not conducted on the premises upon which the sign is located (i.e., a billboard that advertises the Colorado Lottery).
- Official Sign: A device erected for a public purpose (i.e., the "Welcome to Colorful Colorado" sign).
- Directional Sign: A device that directs the traveling public to publicly or privately owned natural phenomena or to historic, cultural, scientific, educational and religious sites and areas of natural scenic beauty or outdoor recreation.

Previously, only Off-Premise and Directional Signs required a CDOT permit. However, On-Premise and Official Signs were allowed without a CDOT permit with certain restrictions.

For enforcement purposes, CDOT monitors interstates and state highways for outdoor advertising devices that needed permits. Under the old state law, to determine whether a sign needed a permit, CDOT arguably had to review the words and pictures of the sign to figure out the type of device it was. Recently, federal courts across the country have said this arguably content-based distinction may be a violation of free speech.

As a result, Senate Bill 21-263 removes the arguably content-based distinction from state law and establishes a new compensation-based approach for permitting and enforcement. Now, under the new state law only advertising devices visible from the roadway that generate compensation require a CDOT permit. Compensation means the exchange of anything of value, including but not limited to money, as further defined in the new state law.

The immediate adoption of emergency rules is necessary to align CDOT's processes for permitting and enforcement of advertising devices with the new state law under Senate Bill 21-263. The emergency rules support CDOT's control of advertising devices in areas near the interstate system and state highway system to protect and promote the health, safety, and welfare of the traveling public by reducing driver distractions and preserving the natural and scenic beauty of Colorado.

The specific purpose of the emergency rulemaking is to align CDOT's processes for permitting and enforcement of outdoor advertising devices with the new state law under Senate Bill 21-263. These emergency rules establish a new compensation-based approach for permitting and enforcement of outdoor advertising devices in areas near interstates and state highways and visible to the traveling public from the roadway. These emergency rules remove the previous categories of outdoor advertising devices (i.e., On-Premise Sign, Off-Premise Sign, Official Sign, and Directional Sign) from the rules, and they also redefine the definition of "Advertising Device" and add the definition of "Compensation." These emergency rules also modify the noncompliance requirements to give a property owner or sign owner the option to execute an affidavit under the penalty of perjury in the event the property owner or sign owner does not believe their sign is an advertising device requiring a CDOT permit. These emergency rules streamline the hearing procedures and allow an Applicant who was denied a permit to request an expedited hearing within thirty days of the notice of denial. Additionally, these emergency rules clarify that Changeable Electronic Variable Message advertising devices may not be within 1000 feet of each other that are facing the same direction. Finally, these emergency rules make technical revisions to align the rules with the new state law under Senate Bill 21-263.

Section 3. Applicability

The emergency rules apply to all outdoor advertising devices in areas near the interstate system and state highway system that are visible to the traveling public from the roadway. These emergency rules do not apply to outdoor advertising devices on land in Colorado held by the federal government in trust for Indian tribes.

Questions and Answers from the Stakeholder Workshop

CDOT Responses to Stakeholder Comments/Inquiries

The following discussion is intended to assist stakeholders who in good faith seek to better understand the new language within the emergency rules. The following discussion should not be construed as a complete and final treatment of the topic and/or a complete position of CDOT as it applies to a specific factual scenario. CDOT reserves the right to clarify, modify, or expand upon these responses.

Purpose and Intent

The purpose of the rules, 2 CCR 601-3 et seq., including these emergency rules, is to carry out the provisions of the Outdoor Advertising Act, § 43-1-401, et seq., C.R.S., and the Highway Beautification Act of 1965, 23 U.S.C. 131, 23 C.F.R. 750.705(h) by establishing a statewide uniform program controlling the use of Advertising Devices in areas adjacent to the State Highway System. The intent of the rules, including these emergency rules, is to protect and promote the health, safety, and welfare of the traveling public and the people of Colorado, and to promote the reasonable, orderly and effective display of outdoor advertising, while preserving and enhancing the natural and scenic beauty of Colorado.

The purpose of the Outdoor Advertising Act can be found at § 43-1-402, C.R.S. The legislative intent behind SB21-263 can be found in the bill texts (https://leg.colorado.gov/bills/sb21-263) and in the legislative hearings on the bill.

The changes in the emergency rules are to update the rules with the changes made to the Outdoor Advertising Act.

What is an "Advertising Device" and what is "Compensation"?

Under the emergency rules, CDOT will not be looking at the content of a sign in order to determine whether a CDOT permit is required, rather, CDOT will only regulate those signs for which Compensation is paid or earned in exchange for its erection or existence. The new definitions of "Advertising Device" and "Compensation" further a compensation-based approach to regulation.

Hypothetical sign sites or scenarios cannot be uniformly commented on by CDOT. The public should operate on a presumption that if the exchange of anything of value is directly or indirectly paid or earned in exchange for the erection or existence of a sign designed, intended, or used to advertise or inform by any person or entity, that is considered Compensation. In the event Compensation is paid or earned, the sign is considered an Advertising Device regulated by CDOT. In that event, a permit must be obtained. If Compensation is being exchanged, the applicant will need to apply for a CDOT permit. If there is any uncertainty as to whether a sign is an Advertising Device or not, the property owner or sign owner can feel free to submit a permit application to CDOT. During this transitional time, and to accommodate good faith questions there is no fee charged for processing a permit application.

It is also important to note that these are emergency rules and are temporary. CDOT may provide additional interpretations or initiate rulemaking related to this topic in the future.

Why is Rule 6.03.5 (Tourist-Related Nonconforming Advertising Devices – Exemption) being repealed?

There were concerns about ramifications should Rule 6.03.5 be repealed. This rule provides an exemption for Tourist-Related Nonconforming Advertising Devices that were in existence on May 5, 1976.

Because § 43-1-414(5), C.R.S., was not repealed, which provides the exemption, this Rule 6.03.5 can remain in effect.

Do any of the emergency rules changes affect signs that are currently permitted?

No.

What will CDOT's regulation look like going forward?

CDOT monitors interstates and highways to inventory signs that are permitted. Within the course of this monitoring, if CDOT comes upon a sign that is not permitted, CDOT will make contact with the property owner to determine if their sign is an Advertising Device. At that time, the property owner will have options. If their sign is an Advertising device, then they would be required to obtain a permit or remove the sign. When reviewing the Outdoor Advertising Permit Application, CDOT will take into consideration currently permitted Advertising Devices for spacing requirements. If the property owner does not believe their sign is an Advertising Device, the property owner will execute an affidavit stating that their sign is not an Advertising Device under penalty of perjury. The grounds for noncompliance can be found in Rule 3.2. The property owner may face additional consequences pursuant to law, including but not limited to sign removal. See § 43-1-412, C.R.S.; and § 43-1-417, C.R.S.

Why are Comprehensive Developments exempted?

Comprehensive Developments are exempted per state statute. See § 43-1- 403(1.5), C.R.S.

Why is CDOT removing "or renewing" from Rule 2.3(A)?

The changes were made to Rule 2.3 to align with § 43-1-411, C.R.S., from which it stems.

Can CDOT require the landowner to remove an illegal Advertising Device sooner than 60 days?

Not at this time. The changes in the emergency rules are to update the rules with the changes made to the Outdoor Advertising Act. The language of § 43-1-412(2)(a), C.R.S requires that the landowner be given 60 days to remove the device, execute an affidavit as evidence that the device is not an Advertising device, or obtain a permit.

Can CDOT add more language to the rules to discourage individuals/companies from breaking the law, such as disgorgement?

This language is not contemplated at this time. The changes in the emergency rules are to update the rules with the changes made to the Outdoor Advertising Act. In addition to having a sign removed, the penalties for noncompliance are set forth in § 43-1-417, C.R.S.

Why is CDOT not proposing changes to Rule 7.00(D)(2)(b) and other changes it proposed in stakeholder workshops held last year?

Not at this time. The changes in the emergency rules are to update the rules with the changes made to the Outdoor Advertising Act. Changes related to Rule 7.00(D)(2)(b) may be proposed in the future.

Can CDOT add language to the rules that would require shielding to protect the night sky?

Not at this time. New legislation would likely need to be passed and signed into law for this type of regulation.

Can CDOT regulate the carbon footprint of Changeable Electronic Variable Message Signs ("CEVMS") a.k.a. digital signs?

Not at this time. New legislation would likely need to be passed and signed into law for this type of regulation.

Adoption of Emergency Rules Governing Outdoor Advertising in Colorado

A new law took effect in Colorado on June 30, 2021, that will change the permitting and enforcement process for the control of outdoor advertising — that is, billboards and signs — along our highways. That also means the rules for the Colorado Department of Transportation's Outdoor Advertising Program have to be updated.

Under federal law, all states must regulate billboards and signs adjacent to the interstate system and state highways and visible to the traveling public from the roadway. These rules are meant to reduce driving distractions and preserve natural beauty.

Colorado requires owners of certain types of outdoor advertising signs to obtain a permit from CDOT, and there are requirements on size, lighting, spacing and zoning for these billboards and signs.

Before the new law took effect this year, state law had previously classified signs into four categories to determine whether a CDOT permit was required. These four categories previously included:

- On-Premise Sign: A sign that advertises services or products conducted on the premises upon which the sign is located (i.e., a fast food restaurant sign visible from I-25).
- Off-Premise Sign: A sign that advertises services or products not conducted on the premises upon which the sign is located (i.e., a billboard that advertises the Colorado Lottery).
- Official Sign: A sign erected for a public purpose (i.e., the "Welcome to Colorful Colorado" sign).
- Directional Sign: A sign that directs the traveling public to publicly or privately owned natural phenomena or to historic, cultural, scientific, educational and religious sites and areas of natural scenic beauty or outdoor recreation.

Previously, only Off-Premise and Directional Signs required a CDOT permit. However, On-Premise and Official Signs were allowed without a CDOT permit with certain restrictions.

For enforcement purposes, CDOT monitored the interstate system and state highways for signs that needed permits. Under the old law, to determine whether a sign needed a permit, CDOT arguably had to review the words and pictures of the sign to figure out the type of sign it was. Recently, federal courts across the country have said this approach may be a violation of free speech.

As a result, the new state law removes the arguably content-based distinction from Colorado's Outdoor Advertising Act and establishes a compensation-based approach. Now, under the new law only signs visible from the roadway that generate compensation require a CDOT permit. Compensation means the exchange of anything of value, including but not limited to money, as further defined in the new state law.

The new law also establishes a 30-day time frame for CDOT to make a decision on a permit application. This change ensures CDOT will quickly process permit applications.

CDOT has to adopt emergency rules to align its process with the new state law. These emergency rules will remove the four types of outdoor advertising signs from rules, and they also will redefine "advertising device" and add the definition of "compensation."

The new compensation-based approach makes it easier for landowners and sign owners to understand whether they need a CDOT permit. It also eases their regulatory burden by reducing the number of requirements.

Purpose or objective

The specific purpose of the emergency rulemaking is to align CDOT's processes for permitting and enforcement of outdoor advertising devices with the new state law under Senate Bill 21-263. These emergency rules establish a new compensation-based approach for permitting and enforcement of outdoor advertising devices in areas near interstates and state highways and visible to the traveling public from the roadway. These emergency rules remove the previous categories of outdoor advertising devices (i.e., On-Premise Sign, Off-Premise Sign, Official Sign, and Directional Sign) from the rules, and they also redefine the definition of "Advertising Device" and add the definition of "Compensation." These emergency rules also modify the noncompliance requirements to give a property owner or sign owner the option to execute an affidavit under the penalty of perjury in the event the property owner or sign owner does not believe their sign is an advertising device requiring a CDOT permit. These emergency rules streamline the hearing procedures and allow an Applicant who was denied a permit to request an expedited hearing within thirty days of the notice of denial. Additionally, these emergency rules clarify that Changeable Electronic Variable Message advertising devices may not be within 1000 feet of each other that are facing the same direction. Finally, these emergency rules make technical revisions to align the rules with the new state law under Senate Bill 21-263. (See attachment)

Re: 2 CCR 601-3 Rules Governing Outdoor Advertising in Colorado

To Colorado Department of Transportation at dot rules@state.co.us

Please accept this memo on behalf of Scenic Colorado regarding Rules Governing Outdoor Advertising in Colorado 2 CCR 601-3. We appreciate the opportunity to join a conference call on the proposed emergency rule and to submit these comments.

By way of introduction, Scenic Colorado is a not-for-profit 501(c)3 organization dedicated to the preservation and enhancement of Colorado's scenic environment and view-scapes. Specifically, our members support the elimination of all outdoor advertising that inhibits the view of the natural environment including billboards and other structures used for such advertising. Our members have been instrumental in opposing the construction of new billboards, especially electronic billboards throughout the state.

In general, Scenic Colorado finds the proposed emergency rule acceptable. Scenic Colorado recognizes that the distinction between on-premise and off-premise signs, especially as it relates to billboards, requires careful consideration. The proposed changes adopting a new definition of advertising device which involves compensation appears to accomplish the need for clarification.

In particular, Scenic Colorado supports the following revisions currently contained in the proposed rule:

- 6.03.1.C: No new advertising device shall be erected adjacent to a Scenic Byway
- 12.00.C.2.a.: No CEVMS may be placed within 1,000 feet of another CEVMS on the same side of the highway and facing the same direction of travel.

Subject to these considerations, Scenic Colorado supports the proposed rule.

Very truly vorus

Hello -

We have been in the tourism business for 70 years locally. We are concerned about the deletion of existing 6.03.5 Tourist Related Nonconforming Advertising Devices – Exemption.

Our signage and our large beetle sculpture (all on our own property) are iconic and internationally known, and on display at DIA – see attachment. We don't want our items jeopardized by this loss of exemption.

Please explain how we are protected under the new legislation and emergency rules.

Sincerely,

May Museum of Natural History

Hello Stakeholder,

Thank you for attending our Outdoor Advertising Stakeholder Workshop! We appreciated the feedback that we heard during the workshop. We are taking the comments into consideration and will update the proposed emergency rules as appropriate.

We wanted to share the video from Monday's workshop with you because we realize that some stakeholders were not able to join us on July 19, 2021. Since the workshop video is a large file, it will be shared through Google Drive in the link below. Please note that we did not have a court reporter in attendance at the workshop to transcribe the workshop.

Outdoor Advertising Stakeholder Workshop

To ensure that we have adequate time to consider the public statements heard during the workshop and any written comments received, we may update our rulemaking schedule and seek adoption of the proposed emergency rules on a date later than July 30, 2021. We intend to keep you posted on changes to the rulemaking schedule and any updates during the rulemaking process as they occur.

As a friendly reminder, please submit written comments on or before July 23, 2021, to dot_rules@state.co.us. Written comments will be redacted for data privacy and posted on CDOT's Rules Website. I have also attached a high-level summary of the outdoor advertising rule changes.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you, Natalie

COMMENTS ON NEW CDOT REGULATIONS

I want to thank everyone for this opportunity to provide comments on CDOT's new proposed rules. Having listened to CDOT and stakeholder comments at Monday's meeting it was quite apparent that CDOT has a tough task of how to draft new rules that are content neutral and still satisfy its obligations entered into with the Federal Government. It is also quite apparent that what CDOT has proposed to satisfy both these requirements will turn into a regulatory nightmare for CDOT. This is said as CDOT didn't seem to have answers at Monday's meeting to the most basic questions posed by stakeholders on how CDOT plans on enforcing these new rules.

A stakeholder, who is associated with a History Museum, relayed his concerns at this meeting concerning if their existing signs associated with the museum would now be regulated by CDOT under these new proposed rules (under current rules they are not regulated by CDOT). CDOT really didn't have an answer to their concerns on what will now be considered an "advertising device" that CDOT will now be regulating. This concern will probably be shared by every person/entity who currently have signs that are not regulated by CDOT under current rules (on-premise signs/official signs/directional signs/political signs/logo signs, etc.).

This concern will be directly derived from CDOT's definition of what now constitutes an "advertising device". CDOT is now proposing that signs that derive "compensation", whether or not that compensation is directly or indirectly paid or earned in exchange for the signs erection or existence by any person or entity, will now fall under CDOT's regulatory authority and have to meet all of CDOT's rules if that "advertising device" is visible from the travel way of any state highway. CDOT is also proposing that "compensation" means the exchange of anything of value...". This definition, exchange of anything of value (whether directly or indirectly), is going to create a regulatory nightmare for CDOT if CDOT is going to administer these new rules in a fair and impartial manner.

It is hard to imagine any sign that doesn't create "value" for some person or entity. Why else do people/entities pay to have signs created, installed, and maintained if they don't create "value". This is true for any currently defined on-premise sign, off-premise sign, directional sign, political sign, logo sign, etc. Only fools would spend their resources on signage if they didn't expect that signage to create "value".

With this in mind I feel it is imperative to discuss some of the current, and potential new signs, that CDOT will be required to regulate. To start with, CDOT needs to consider all the current onpremise signs within CDOT's jurisdiction that are not currently required to obtain a permit from CDOT to advertise their business. Each sign will now have to meet CDOT's new rules and CDOT will be required to regulate them. There are probably thousands of these signs located adjacent to, and visible from, the traveled way of the State's highways. CDOT must now regulate these signs and apply all the size, spacing, lighting, and zoning requirements to these signs if they are not a "vehicle using the highway" or "part of a comprehensive development" as defined by the new rules. The far majority of these existing signs will not be able to satisfy these new rules bestowed upon them and will have to be given a non-conforming status. Which means they will not be allowed to be altered, changed, moved, etc. from their current configuration/location to remain compliant with these new rules. How will CDOT insure all these signs remain the same as they are to be able to maintain their non-conforming status? What happens when two current signs are now required to meet CDOT's new rules and only one sign can be conforming due to spacing issues (for example, two signs visible and adjacent to an Interstate). On an Interstate, these signs are required to be spaced 500' apart. What happens if two signs owned by different entities are spaced under 500'. How will CDOT decide who gets the conforming status and who gets the non-conforming status? Any new business won't be able to erect a new sign if the sign will be within 500' of any other "on-premise" sign that is now regulated by CDOT. How will CDOT handle new "advertising devices" that are wanted to be erected for businesses located adjacent to an Interstate if the property the "advertising devices" are located upon wasn't zoned for commercial or industrial uses prior to 1970 and not part of a "comprehensive development". Are they out of luck? CDOT should consider that many Counties and Cities in this State did not have zoning prior to 1970. Does this mean that any new business is excluded from advertising to the Interstate in these areas if they are not part of a comprehensive development as defined by these new rules? As an example, suppose a truck stop located adjacent to the Interstate is located on one parcel (doesn't meet the proposed definition of a comprehensive development) and wants to modify their current sign to include a digital sign. Are they precluded from doing that if the location/sign doesn't meet all the size, spacing, lighting, and zoning requirements? How about the same sign being located adjacent to a state highway and the land wasn't zoned for commercial and industrial purposes until after 1970. These signs can only be up to 150 square feet. What if the existing sign is over 150 square and the owner wants to modify it, is CDOT going to make them downsize their sign before they modify it. How about when CDOT undertakes a highway widening project and takes the land where a sign is located that has been given a non-conforming status by CDOT under these new rules (and weren't regulated by the "old" rules). Does this mean that the business can no longer have a sign at that location if the location can no longer meet the new rules? Will the State be on the "hook" for the loss of revenue any business will suffer through the condemning of the businesses sign through a highway widening project? How about the State's Logo signs located near Interstate interchanges. If CDOT undertakes a highway widening project and these signs are required to be removed, can they be re-erected at a new location if the new location doesn't meet the size, lighting, spacing or zoning requirements? Any business that advertises on these Logo "advertises devices" does so because it wants the traveling public to solicit their business, thereby, increasing their sales. Why do "advertising devices" located in a comprehensive development (located in an area with two or more parcels) escape enforcement and a development under the exact same conditions but only located on one parcel have to comply with the new rules? In light of the legislative declaration at 43-1-402 how does the comprehensive developed area differ from the single parcel designation. An "advertising device" is an "advertising device" no matter how many parcels the sign serves. Each one could, for arguments sake, contain 10 different business panels on the "advertising device". What is the difference in terms of satisfying the legislative interests stated in 43-1-402? Why should the "advertising device" in the "comprehensive development" be treated differently than the "advertising device" located on a single lot. The sign in the "comprehensive development" gets to escape enforcement and the sign located on the single lot doesn't, even though they both advertise 10 different businesses. How about a business located in a "Bonus area" of the Interstate, are they now precluded from erecting an "advertising device". How about political "advertising devices" advertising a candidate? In its narrowest definition of "compensation" does that mean that any person associated with the campaign can not put up a campaign sign for the candidate they work for if it is visible to a highway? In a broader sense, can any person now put a political sign on their property if it is visible to a highway? The candidate will gain "value" through this exposure and some person/entity had to pay for its creation and distribute it out to people who "support" that candidate. Exposure creates "value"! Ask anyone who has worked in Outdoor Advertising and they will tell you that one of the main determinations in the rent they charge a client is the amount of traffic that "advertising device" is exposed to (traffic counts).

What happens when a "sign owner" executes an affidavit stating that their sign is not an "advertising device". How will CDOT verify this and monitor it going forward. I thoroughly understand the history museums concerns. If they, like any other business, charges a fee or sells a product, are they not gaining "value" from the increased amount of people entering their business due to the "advertising devices" existence? Once again, why would anyone spend money erecting and maintaining an "advertising device" if it wasn't giving "value" to that business/entity?

At the next stakeholders meeting I hope CDOT will be able to tell us what "advertising devices" do not create "value" to the business/entity responsible for its erection or existence! I do plan on speaking at the next stakeholder meeting and I am going to ask CDOT this question. This question isn't "speculative" in nature and I hope CDOT will have a comprehensive answer to this complicated question before it creates a regulatory nightmare for itself. Afterall, how can CDOT enforce something if it doesn't even know what it should be enforcing!

These are just some of the scenarios that CDOT should consider prior to changing its rules. There are plenty of others! That's why it was so discouraging at Monday's meeting when CDOT didn't have answers to the basic questions that arose. I believe it was stated that CDOT didn't want to speculate on how they would treat a potential problem in answering those questions. Shouldn't CDOT speculate on all these potential problems PRIOR to them arising under these new rules to try and stem the regulatory nightmare they are creating and potential litigation these new rules will create. It became quite apparent to me at this meeting that CDOT hadn't thought through these new rules and are just "shooting from the hip" trying to cure one problem (content neutrality) and that the "cure" is actually going to be worse than the "disease" it is trying to rid itself of.

Should CDOT enact these new rules in their present form I am sure CDOT will be receiving complaints on hundreds, if not thousands, of "advertising devices" that will now be required to be regulated by CDOT. I am also sure that CDOT will find itself "drowning" in litigation with all these new "advertising devices" it will now need to regulate. I know CDOT has a tough task in figuring out how to enact "content neutral" rules while still fulfilling its agreements with the Federal Government concerning Highway Beautification. But these new proposed rules will only make your situation worse. As someone who has been doing outdoor advertising in this state for 27 years, I assure you these rules will only be a nightmare for the regulatory people at CDOT. Please rethink what you are about to enact!

Lastly, I would like to comment on CDOT's desire to remove the words "or renewing" from Rule 2.3. Since it is the desire of this State, and CDOT, to comply with the Highway Beautification Act, CDOT must cause the prompt removal of any illegal "advertising device", whether a permit has been issued or not (see 23 CFR 750.705 (i). By removing these two words it appears that CDOT wants to have more discretion on what permits it must revoke if the "advertising device" was permitted in error and does not, nor ever has, complied with the size, lighting and spacing requirements. To not revoke an illegally obtained permit, and cause the prompt removal of that "advertising device", would potentially subject the State of Colorado to a 10% loss of its federal highway dollars. This should be avoided at all costs. I would suggest even adding a new Rule whereby CDOT keeps a "log" of all the "advertising devices" it receives complaints/questions on and this log contain the resolution derived for this "advertising device" and publish it on its website. This would definitely benefit anyone who has a question about how CDOT will enforce its Rules on that particular problem. It will also benefit any future CDOT employees to ensure they will be enforcing the Rules in a consistent manner and no illegal "advertising devices" are allowed to continue to exist. Afterall, I think everyone familiar with this program knows that the inconsistent and discretionary enforcement actions from CDOT personnel is why CDOT is now having to update its Rules! Transparency and consistency should far outweigh discretion!

Thank you once again for allowing my comments and I look forward to more discussions on this very important matter. Should anyone wish to speak to me on these matters feel free to call me at Mountain States Media, LLC.

To Whom It May Concern,

Mile High Outdoor is providing written comments in response to the recent Virtual Workshop put together by CDOT on July 19th, 2021. All comments are in reference to CDOT's effort to modify a portion of the rules governing outdoor advertising in Colorado, 2 CCR 601-3 (Outdoor Advertising Rules) in an Emergency Rules Making Process. These edits are to align the language in 2CCR 601-3 with Senate Bill 21-263, which was enacted into law on June 30th, 2021.

In summary, Mile High Outdoor is in full support of the drafted language discussed in detail on July 19th. We feel it will bring the Outdoor Advertising Rules 2 CCR 601-3 into alignment with the new Statute.

Rule 3.2 Grounds for Noncompliance

A. 1. (b) Mile High Outdoor would like to see a shorter timeframe given to the property owner to conform. We believe that 60 days is far too long of a period since many advertising campaigns only run for 28 days. This would allow property owners the ability to take short term advertising programs on illegal signs (meaning they needed to follow the Outdoor Advertising Rules), collect their money, and then correct the issue after receiving notice on non-compliance all within 60 days. This might even end up being a business model for some of the typical offenders within the market. We would encourage CDOT a cure period of 10 days, and believe that is plenty of time to remove the advertisement in order to bring the sign into conformance.

Mile High Outdoor would also suggest CDOT look at language that further discourages individuals and/or companies from breaking the law of the newly approved Outdoor Advertising Act. Below is an example of California's disgorgement language that would be recommended.

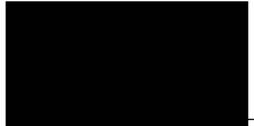

California Business Code § 5485

Annual permit fee for advertising displays; penalties for displays without valid permits; enforcement costs (a)(1) The annual permit fee for each advertising display shall be set by the director. (2) The fee shall not exceed the amount reasonably necessary to recover the cost of providing the service or enforcing the regulations for which the fee is charged, but in no event shall the fee exceed one hundred dollars ($100). This maximum fee shall be increased in the 2007–08 fiscal year and in the 2012–13 fiscal year by an amount equal to the increase in the California Consumer Price Index. (3) The fee may reflect the department's average cost, including the indirect costs, of providing the service or enforcing the regulations. (b) If a display is placed or maintained without a valid, unrevoked, and unexpired permit, the following penalties shall be assessed: (1) If the advertising display is placed or maintained in a location that conforms to the provisions of this chapter, a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100) shall be assessed. (2) If the advertising display is placed or maintained in a location that does not conform to the provisions of this chapter or local ordinances, and is not removed within thirty days of written notice from the department or the city or the county with land use jurisdiction over the property upon which the advertising display is located, a penalty of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) plus one hundred dollars ($100) for each day the advertising display is placed or maintained after the department sends written notice shall be assessed. (c) In addition to the penalties set forth in subdivision (b), the gross revenues from the unauthorized advertising display that are received by, or owed to, the applicant and a person working in concert with the applicant shall be disgorged. (d) The department or a city or a county within the location upon which the advertising is located may enforce the provisions of this section. (e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if an action results in the successful enforcement of this section, the department may request the court to award the department its enforcement costs, including, but not limited to, its reasonable attorneys' fees for pursuing the action. (f) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to strengthen the ability of local governments to enforce zoning ordinances governing advertising displays.

To Whom It May Concern,

The Colorado Outdoor Advertising Association (COAA) is providing written comments in response to the recent Virtual Workshop put together by CDOT on July 19th, 2021. All comments are in reference to CDOT's effort to modify a portion of the rules governing outdoor advertising in Colorado, 2 CCR 601-3 (Outdoor Advertising Rules) in an Emergency Rules Making Process. These edits are to align the language in 2CCR 601-3 with Senate Bill 21-263, which was enacted into law on June 30th, 2021.

In summary, the COAA is in full support of the drafted language discussed in detail on July 19th. We feel it will bring the Outdoor Advertising Rules 2 CCR 601-3 into alignment with the new Statute.

Rule 3.2 Grounds for Noncompliance

A. 1. (b) The COAA would like to see a shorter timeframe given to the property owner to conform. We believe that 60 days is far too long of a period since many advertising campaigns only run for 28 days. This would allow property owners the ability to take short term advertising programs on illegal signs (meaning they needed to follow the Outdoor Advertising Rules), collect their money, and then correct the issue after receiving notice on non-compliance all within 60 days. This might even end up being a business model for some of the typical offenders within the market. We would encourage CDOT a cure period of 10 days, and believe that is plenty of time to remove the advertisement in order to bring the sign into conformance.

The COAA would also suggest CDOT look at language that further discourages individuals and/or companies from breaking the law of the newly approved Outdoor Advertising Act. Below is an example of California's disgorgement language that would be recommended.

California Business Code § 5485

Annual permit fee for advertising displays; penalties for displays without valid permits; enforcement costs (a)(1) The annual permit fee for each advertising display shall be set by the director. (2) The fee shall not exceed the amount reasonably necessary to recover the cost of providing the service or enforcing the regulations for which the fee is charged, but in no event shall the fee exceed one hundred dollars ($100). This maximum fee shall be increased in the 2007–08 fiscal year and in the 2012–13 fiscal year by an amount equal to the increase in the California Consumer Price Index. (3) The fee may reflect the department's average cost, including the indirect costs, of providing the service or enforcing the regulations. (b) If a display is placed or maintained without a valid, unrevoked, and unexpired permit, the following penalties shall be assessed: (1) If the advertising display is placed or maintained in a location that conforms to the provisions of this chapter, a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100) shall be assessed. (2) If the advertising display is placed or maintained in a location that does not conform to the provisions of this chapter or local ordinances, and is not removed within thirty days of written notice from the department or the city or the county with land use jurisdiction over the property upon which the advertising display is located, a penalty of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) plus one hundred dollars ($100) for each day the advertising display is placed or maintained after the department sends written notice shall be assessed. (c) In addition to the penalties set forth in subdivision (b), the gross revenues from the unauthorized advertising display that are received by, or owed to, the applicant and a person working in concert with the applicant shall be disgorged. (d) The department or a city or a county within the location upon which the advertising is located may enforce the provisions of this section. (e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if an action results in the successful enforcement of this section, the department may request the court to award the department its enforcement costs, including, but not limited to, its reasonable attorneys' fees for pursuing the action. (f) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to strengthen the ability of local governments to enforce zoning ordinances governing advertising displays.

Sincerely,

Re: Proposed Rulemaking - 2 CCR § 601-3

Dear Ms. Lutz:

Thank you for the opportunity to provide comments on the proposed rulemaking to update 2 CCR § 601-3 in response to the recent passage of SB21-263. The purpose of this letter is to provide general comments about the proposed rules, and then to specifically address 2 CCR § 601-3:7.00.D. These comments are submitted on behalf of our client, StreetMediaGroup, LLC.

In General

Our comments on SB21-263 are of record and apply with equal force to the proposed rulemaking. In addition, we stand by our comments at the rulemaking workshop on July 19, 2021. CDOT's written summary says "[t]he new compensation-based approach makes it easier for landowners and sign owners to understand whether they need a CDOT permit." Yet, at the rulemaking workshop CDOT personnel were unable to answer basic questions about everyday scenarios in this regard, including:

- Whether a commercial landlord who charges tenants for placement on an existing sign would need a CDOT permit, or
- Whether a commercial landlord who charges a tenant for the erection of a new sign on that tenant's behalf would need a CDOT permit.

Mr. Lovato said that no permit would be required for the scenario in which a landowner pays a contractor to erect a sign, but there is nothing in the actual text of the law that supports that conclusion. CDOT has a history of interpreting and applying its laws with uneven results, as evidenced by the records of the protracted conflicts between CDOT and our clients.

CDOT and COAA cooperated to draft SB21-263 and push it through the legislature, yet CDOT personnel are not able to articulate the purpose of the law in public. The First Amendment requires clarity with respect to the purposes of the law, the standards that apply to the issuance of permits, and the standards that apply to the determination of who will be subject to a permitting requirement in the first place. The public is entitled to know clearly which signs are subject to permitting requirements and which signs are not subject to permitting requirements. It is CDOT's legal obligation to provide that information in a manner that ordinary people can feel confident that they understand. We hope that CDOT can and will articulate that information in a manner that is useful and practical for the many thousands of sign owners along regulated highways in the State of Colorado who may be affected by this new regulation.

As we advised at the workshop, until CDOT articulates the purpose and specific objectives of the new law, it is very challenging to offer meaningful, substantive input regarding specific provisions of 2 CCR § 601-3 beyond what is included in the next part of this letter. Before promulgating any new rule, we think CDOT has an obligation to the people of Colorado to state very clearly on the record what it is actually trying to accomplish, as well as how the proposed rule advances or fulfills those objectives. CDOT did a much better job in this regard last year when it considered amendments to 2 CCR § 601-3. See Exhibit A.

The Interchange Rule

In October 2020, CDOT almost promulgated a change to 2 CCR § 601-3.D.2., along with updates to the definitions of "urbanized area" and "urban area" in 2 CCR § 601-3:1.31. We think the rationale for those amendments has not changed (see Exhibit A), and if anything it is even more urgent today. Modifications to the interchange rule would alleviate many existing and potential conflicts under the new law, would harmonize future practice with past practice, and would also thereby eliminate controversy surrounding a number of "illegal" permits held by three large COAA member companies.

One COAA member previously suggested that the 1971 Agreement does not allow changes to the interchange rule. We disagree for reasons we have previously articulated. Moreover, we believe that whatever individual participants in this rulemaking process may think about the procedural requirements, this issue could simply be resolved by stipulation in federal court.

We urge CDOT to make the following changes, which it supported less than a year ago-

1.31 "Urban Area" and "Urbanized Area" "Urban Area" pursuant to 23 U.S.C. 101 (33) means an urbanized area designated by the Bureau of the Census having a population of 5,000 or more and not within any urbanized area (as defined by 23 U.S.C. 101 (34)), within boundaries to be fixed by responsible State and local officials.

A. "Urban Area" means an urbanized area or, in the case of an urbanized area encompassing more than one state, that part of the urbanized area in each state, or urban place as designated by the U.S. Bureau of the Census having a population of 5,000 or more and not within any urbanized area, within boundaries to be fixed by responsible state and local officials in cooperation with each other, subject to approval by the U.S. Secretary of Transportation. Such boundaries shall encompass, at a minimum, the entire urban place designated by the U.S. Bureau of the Census.

B. "Urbanized Area" means an area with a population of 50,000 or more designated by the U.S. Bureau of the Census, within boundaries to be fixed by responsible state and local officials in cooperation with each other, subject to approval by the U.S. Secretary of Transportation. Such boundaries shall encompass, at a minimum, the entire urbanized area within a state as designated by the U.S. Bureau of the Census. Urbanized Area designations may be viewed on the TIGERweb Decennial map provided on the U.S. Census Bureau's website at https://tigerweb.geo.census.gov/.

D. Spacing of Signs

- 1. Advertising Devices on Control Routes may not be located in such a manner as to obscure, or otherwise physically interfere with the effectiveness of any official traffic sign, signal, or device, obstruct or physically interfere with the driver's view of approaching, merging or intersecting traffic.
- 2. In the Control Area near Interstates Highways and Freeways:
 - a. No two Signs shall be spaced less than 500 feet apart.
 - b. Outside of incorporated villages and cities, no Advertising Devices may shall not be located adjacent to or within 500 feet of an interchange, intersection at grade, or safety Rest Area if the Advertising Device is located outside of an Urbanized Area and outside of the boundaries of an incorporated town or city. The 500 feet is to be measured along the Interstate or Freeway from the beginning or ending of pavement widening at the exit from or entrance to the main-traveled way.
 - i. This spacing limitation applies where the proposed location of the Sign is located outside of an Urbanized Area and outside of the boundaries of an incorporated town or city regardless of the location of the interchange, intersection at grade, or safety Rest Area.
 - ii. The limits of an interchange, intersection at grade, or safety Rest Area span from the beginning of pavement widening for an exit lane or ramp and continues through the interchange, intersection at grade, or safety Rest Area, to the point where pavement widening ends for an entrance lane or ramp.

- The 500-foot measurement is to be measured parallel to the highway. This prohibition applies to the entire 660-foot Control Area adjacent to the interchange, intersection at grade, or safety Rest Area along with the 500-foot measurement adjacent thereto.
- iv. "Pavement widening" includes exit and entrance lanes and ramps, auxiliary lanes, and other lanes which terminate while allowing traffic to weave on or off the main-travelled way.
- v. For those locations where a continuous auxiliary lane extends from the entrance ramp/lane of one interchange/intersection at grade/safety Rest Area and connects to the exit ramp/lane of another interchange/intersection at grade/safety Rest Area, such that there is no clear "beginning or ending of pavement widening at the exit from or entrance to the main-traveled way," this rule prohibits signs located within 2,250 feet from the physical gore of entrance ramps/lanes and within 1,600 feet from the physical gore of exit ramps/lanes.
- 3. All other Controlled Routes except Interstate and Freeways
 - a. Outside of Urbanized Areas and incorporated townsvillages and cities, no two structures-Signs shall be spaced less than 300 feet apart.
 - b. Within Urbanized Areas and incorporated townsvillages and cities, no two structures-Signs shall be spaced less than 100 feet apart.

Summary of Rule 7.00(D)(2) in 2 CCR 601-3, Rules Governing Outdoor Advertising

- The purpose of the Outdoor Advertising Rules found in 2 CCR 601-3 is to control the use of billboards or other outdoor advertising signs in areas near the state highway system to protect and promote the health, safety, and welfare of the traveling public.
- The Outdoor Advertising Rules also promote the reasonable, orderly, and effective display of billboards while preserving and enhancing the natural and scenic beauty of Colorado in compliance with the Colorado Outdoor Advertising Act and the federal Highway Beautification Act.
- The Colorado Department of Transportation ("CDOT") proposes to clarify the restriction against billboards being located within 500 feet of an interchange, intersection at-grade, or safety rest area near interstates and freeways in Rule 7.00(D)(2).
- This administrative rule derives from a 1971 agreement between CDOT and the United States Secretary of Transportation and sets forth the State's size, spacing, and lighting criteria for billboards.
- CDOT proposes that signs cannot be located adjacent to or within 500 feet of an interchange, intersection at grade, or safety Rest Area if the billboard is located outside of an urbanized area and outside of the boundaries of an incorporated town or city.
- This proposed revision contemplates modern highway design principles, recent developments in outdoor advertising laws and regulations, and changes in land use zoning and designations, such as unincorporated areas that are near the boundaries of incorporated towns or cities.
- This proposed rule change is consistent with the Highway Beautification Act's intent to preserve natural and scenic beauty in rural and unincorporated areas.
- Local jurisdictions have the authority to regulate billboards and other outdoor advertising signs within their boundaries. This proposed rule change supports decision-making at the local or community level. Local jurisdictions are in a better position to determine whether or not billboards should be allowed in their communities rather than CDOT making that determination.
- This proposed revision will help to preserve public funds, as many of the CDOT's recent active and historical litigation has involved this rule.

Greetings CDOT,

Attached are written comments for the proposed rule changes to the Outdoor Advertising Rules: 2 CCR 601-3. Thank you,

Colorado IDA Western Colorado Regional Coordinator

Recommended revisions to Outdoor Advertising Rules.docx 38K

Recommended revisions to RULES GOVERNING OUTDOOR ADVERTISING IN COLORADO 2 CCR 601-3:

Introduction: Artificial light at night is a powerful environmental stimulant, and as the use of light at night continues to increase across the globe, public and environmental health issues due to these lights are becoming more of a problem(1). The International Dark-sky Association (IDA) was formed in 1988 in response to the growing threat of light pollution, and has become the world-leader in protecting the nighttime environment through education, outreach, and promotion of its Dark-Sky Places certification program for communities and public places who show an exceptional dedication to preserving the night sky (2).

Colorado is currently emerging as a leader in dark-sky awareness and conservation with a growing list of dark-sky communities and places, and with towns, counties, public land managers, and state agencies all working in concert on dark-sky friendly policies and legislation. The International Dark-sky Association Colorado chapter requests that the Colorado Department of Transportation look at ways to reduce light pollution wherever possible.

The following comments outline recommended revisions to RULES GOVERNING OUTDOOR ADVERTISING IN COLORADO 2 CCR 601-3 in order to preserve and protect Colorado's dark-sky resource.

Shielding:

Section 7.00 Signs in Areas Zoned Industrial or Commercial Uses C. Lighting 2: Add to existing shielding requirements. "Light shall be pointed down and shielded so that no light is directed up towards the sky, and..."

Also, add specific limits to prevent light trespass and light pollution. As such, "the illumination projected from any use shall at no time exceed 0.1 footcandle onto a residential use, and 1.0 footcandle onto a non-residential use. This should apply to light emitted from any form of signage." (5)(6)

(Light trespass from CEVMS can be mitigated through technology such as Siteline (3))

Dark-sky places:

Section 9.00:

Add International Dark-sky places restrictions similar to scenic byway restrictions. Provisions must be added so that lighted signs do not impact Colorado's light-sensitive dark-sky areas:

"No new CEVMS shall be erected within 25 (To Be Reviewed (TBR)) miles of a certified International Dark-sky place, park, sanctuary, reserve, or community." (7)

"All lighted Signs (externally or internally lit) within 25 (TBR) miles of a certified dark-sky location are encouraged to be turned off at night to preserve the dark-sky quality of the location, otherwise these signs must have lighting that is pointed down and fully shielded so that no light is cast upwards into the sky or onto adjacent lands. Also, lighted signs within 25 (TBR) miles of a certified dark-sky location must be dimmed to total luminance levels less than 100 nits, and color temperature reduced to 2200 Kelvin or less between dusk and dawn."

CEVMS Brightness:

12. CEVMS C. General Requirements 5. Operational Requirements b. Brightness 4: Replace "300 nits" with "specific luminance limits of 100 nits for nighttime conditions, applicable to all CEVMS."(4)(5)(6)

CEVMS Color Temperature (CCT):

Also add provision to reduce the amount of blue (CCT > 2200 Kelvin) light at night.

12. CEVMS C. General Requirements 5. Operational Requirements c. Color Temperature (CCT).

"A CEVMS shall use automatic technology to adjust the color temperature of the Sign relative to ambient light so that blue light (ie light with CCT > 2200 Kelvin) is eliminated at night between dusk and dawn." (1) (8)

CEVMS Curfew:

12. CEVMS Advertising Devices C. General Requirements: 4. Operations b. CEVMS must:

"To further control light pollution, CEVMS shall be extinguished automatically no later than 10:00pm local standard time or 11:00pm daylight savings time each evening until dawn. Signs for establishments that operate or remain open past 10:00 pm MST / 11:00 pm DST may remain on no later than one half hour past the close of the establishment." (5)

This curfew is especially important during spring and autumn bird migration seasons (9).

Carbon Footprint:

Digital signs generally use significantly more electricity than static signs. Normal static displays are illuminated by 2 or 3 inefficient flood lights - usually only at night. Digital displays use efficient LED bulbs, however there are hundreds to thousands of these bulbs on each sign, oftentimes displayed for 24 hours per day, and this energy adds up. Also, CEVMS are operated by a controller unit that adds to the power draw. In summertime, excess heat from the CEVMS controller is managed with air conditioning devices that draw even more power. These factors cause CEVMS to have a significantly higher power draw than the more traditional, static billboard lighting (5).

Where new digital signage construction or digital conversions are permitted, there should be a "trade-off" policy, based on power consumption. For every square footage of digital signage an outdoor advertising company installs, via new construction or conversion, they must remove a specified amount of square footage of their existing static signage, in order to maintain or reduce their carbon footprint. Rules - CDOT, DOT_ <dot_rules@state.co.us>

Adoption of Emergency Rules Governing Outdoor Advertising in Colorado and Opportunity to Comment on Proposed Permanent Rules

Hello Stakeholder:

You have been identified as a stakeholder with interests and experience relevant to outdoor advertising in Colorado.

Senate Bill 21-263 took effect in Colorado on June 30, 2021, changing the permitting and enforcement process for the control of outdoor advertising devices in areas near interstates and state highways and visible to the traveling public from the roadway to a new compensation-based approach.

The attached emergency rules were adopted today to align the Colorado Department of Transportation's ("CDOT") processes for permitting and enforcement of outdoor advertising devices with the new state law under Senate Bill 21-263. The emergency rules will expire on December 02, 2021. Based on the feedback from the Stakeholder Workshop held on July 19, 2021, CDOT has prepared the attached Questions and Answers for your reference.

Additionally, CDOT invites you to submit written comments on the attached proposed permanent rules by August 18, 2021. The proposed permanent rules will make the emergency rules permanent, update the materials incorporated by reference in the rules, and add a new rule for declaratory orders. We tentatively plan to notice the proposed permanent rules with the Secretary of State on August 27, 2021, after consideration of any comments received. You will receive another update at that time with the date for the rulemaking hearing or any changes to the rulemaking schedule.

Please submit all written comments to dot_rules@state.co.us. All comments received from stakeholders will be posted on CDOT's Rulemaking Web Page and will be available for review during the public comment period. We will redact the following information for data privacy from the submissions prior to posting online: first and last names, contact information, including business and home addresses, email addresses, and telephone numbers.

Please feel free to contact Natalie Lutz at dot_rules@state.co.us if you have any questions or would like to be removed from our stakeholder list.

Thank you for your participation in the rulemaking process and for providing feedback on the proposed rules.

Thanks,

Natalie

Notice of Proposed Rulemaking for Rules Governing Outdoor Advertising in Colorado

Hello Stakeholder:

This email serves as notification that the Colorado Department of Transportation (CDOT) filed a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking with the Colorado Secretary of State to consider changes to the rules governing outdoor advertising in Colorado, 2 CCR 601-3.

A proposed permanent rulemaking hearing will be held on October 1, 2021, at 10 am. CDOT proposes to align the processes for permitting and enforcement of outdoor advertising devices with Senate Bill 21-263. I have attached the notice of the hearing, the statement of basis, and the redline version of the proposed rule revisions for your reference in a single PDF document. A full description of the proposed changes can be found on the statement of basis. CDOT has also prepared the attached Questions and Answers for your reference.

The rulemaking hearing will only be conducted in a virtual setting. All interested and affected parties are urged to attend this public hearing by registering for the webinar at: https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/ 1710526049888126736

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the webinar. You may also find the registration link for the virtual rulemaking hearing on CDOT's website.

Please submit all written comments to dot_rules@state.co.us on or before 5:00 p.m. on October 5, 2021. All comments received from stakeholders will be posted on CDOT's Proposed Rules and Hearing Dates Webpage and will be available for review during the public comment period. We will redact the following information for data privacy from the submissions prior to posting online: first and last names, contact information, including business and home addresses, email addresses, and telephone numbers.

Please feel free to contact me at dot rules@state.co.us if you have any questions or would like to be removed from our stakeholder list.

Thank you for participating in the rulemaking process.

Questions and Answers from Stakeholder Written Comments/Inquiries

CDOT Responses to Stakeholder Written Comments/Inquiries

The following discussion is intended to assist stakeholders who in good faith seek to better understand the new language within the rules. The following discussion should not be construed as a complete and final treatment of the topic and/or a complete position of CDOT as it applies to a specific factual scenario. CDOT reserves the right to clarify, modify, or expand upon these responses

Purpose and Intent

The purpose of the rules, 2 CCR 601-3 et seq., including these rules, is to carry out the provisions of the Outdoor Advertising Act, § 43-1-401, et seq., C.R.S., and the Highway Beautification Act of 1965, 23 U.S.C. 131, 23 C.F.R. 750.705(h) by establishing a statewide uniform program controlling the use of Advertising Devices in areas adjacent to the State Highway System. The intent of the rules, including these rules, is to protect and promote the health, safety, and welfare of the traveling public and the people of Colorado, and to promote the reasonable, orderly and effective display of outdoor advertising, while preserving and enhancing the natural and scenic beauty of Colorado.

Additional information on the purpose of the Outdoor Advertising Act can be found at § 43-1-402, C.R.S. The legislative intent behind SB21-263 can be found in the bill texts (https://leg.colorado.gov/bills/sb21-263) and in the legislative hearings on the bill.

The changes in the rules are to update the rules with the changes made to the Outdoor Advertising Act. The rules further update materials incorporated by reference and provide a section for declaratory orders.

Questions related to the terms "Advertising Device" and "Compensation":

1. "When a payment of a fee is made to a local government (that is required) prior to erection of any sign/advertising device, will that be considered "compensation" by CDOT"?

The payment of a permit fee required by either a relevant local government or CDOT is not considered "Compensation."

2. "When a person or an entity pays a monetary sum to physically purchase a sign/advertising device to be erected, does that constitute an exchange of anything of value (compensation) for that signs existence"?

CDOT's answer responds to the question to the extent the question is believed to ask about the actual act of the purchase of materials used in the erection of a sign or Advertising Device. No - the actual act of the purchase of materials used in the erection of a sign or Advertising Device is not considered "Compensation." The actual act of the purchase of materials is not regulated by CDOT."

CDOT's answer responds to the question to the extent the question is believed to ask about the cost of labor and materials used to erect a sign or Advertising Device structure. No - the cost of labor and materials used to erect a sign or Advertising Device structure are not considered "Compensation." The act of installation is not regulated by CDOT, though the sign structure must comply with other laws and rules (e.g., size).

4. "Since memorandum of agreements must be legal (such as the ones issued for permit numbers 10685 and 10686 that have been operating for over 10 years under one) can [Mountain States Media, LLC] get CDOT to issue me one for the location [Mountain States Media, LLC] have in dispute with CDOT (I-25/highway 119 location)."

This question is unrelated to the changes to the rules.

5. "Whether a franchisee needs a CDOT permit for the display of its franchisor's signage along a state highway, where the franchisee pays compensation to the franchisor for the erection of such signage;"

CDOT's answer responds to the question to the extent the question is believed to ask about the cost of labor and materials used to erect a sign or Advertising Device structure. No - the cost of labor and materials used to erect a sign or Advertising Device structure are not considered "Compensation." The act of installation is not regulated by CDOT, though the sign structure must comply with other laws and rules (e.g., size).

6. "Whether a sign company that owns a client's sign and leases it to the client (as a financing mechanism) must obtain a CDOT permit as a result of the lease arrangement."

This question suggests the sign is being used as a "financing mechanism", which indicates an exchange of value is being made for the sign. Therefore, in this question, the sign would be subject to CDOT's outdoor advertising permitting requirements, among other regulatory control.

7. "Whether a commercial real estate broker needs a CDOT permit for the display of a sign on a client's property along a state highway, where the landowner pays compensation to the broker to market the property; []"

This question suggests that with respect to the sign that compensation is not being paid or earned in exchange for the erection or existence of the sign, rather, earned as a result of the sale of the property. The sale of property is not regulated by CDOT.

- 8. "If a property owner leases out their building/sign to another entity (landlord/tenant relationship) and part/all of the rent paid includes the use of a structure to advertise on, does that constitute the exchange of anything of value (compensation) thereby, creating an advertising device?"
- 9. "Whether a commercial landlord who charges tenants for placement on an existing sign would need a CDOT permit; []"
- 10. "Whether a commercial landlord who charges a tenant for the erection of a new sign on that tenant's behalf would need a CDOT permit."
- 11. Could "any retail or office tenant paying its lease to the owner of a building [] be considered as "indirectly paid" compensation for the display of the tenant's name or message on a wall sign or freestanding sign structure[?]"

In response to Questions 8 - 11 above, hypothetical sign sites and sign scenarios cannot be uniformly commented on by CDOT.

Because there are factual circumstances unique to a hypothetical sign site and sign scenario, this would be a case-by-case determination that CDOT cannot uniformly answer. Additionally, a hypothetical sign site and sign scenario may be impacted by relevant local government determinations.

The public should continue to operate on a presumption that if the exchange of anything of value is directly or indirectly paid or earned in exchange for the erection or existence of a sign designed, intended, or used to advertise or inform by any person or entity, that is considered "Compensation." In the event "Compensation" is paid or earned and other definitional elements are met, the sign would be considered an "Advertising Device" regulated by CDOT. In that event, a permit must be obtained. If "Compensation" is being exchanged, the applicant will need to apply for a CDOT permit. If there is any uncertainty as to whether a sign is an "Advertising Device" or not, the property owner or sign owner can access CDOT guidance online or submit a permit application to CDOT. During this transitional time, and to accommodate good faith questions there is no fee charged for processing a permit application.

Questions related to spacing:

12. "Sign owners, businesses, governmental, civic, and religious organizations also need to know how CDOT will deal with spacing requirements as the number of signs subject to CDOT permit requirements mushrooms—that is, who will get to display (or continue to display) their signs and who will not, and who will get to build new signs and who will not."

This question is unrelated to the changes to the rules. The rules do not contemplate changes to spacing rules.

Questions related to protecting the night sky:

13. Can CDOT add language to the rules that would require shielding to protect the night sky?

This question is unrelated to changes to the rules. The rules do not contemplate changes related to the topic of shielding the night sky.

Questions related to "Advertising Devices" on Scenic Byways:

14. Will signage for businesses be impacted along scenic byways?

Pursuant to § 43-1-419, C.R.S, no newly erected "Advertising Devices" will be permitted by CDOT along scenic byways. Only those signs for which "Compensation" is not being exchanged may remain in existence or be newly erected along scenic byways.

Questions related to Rule 12.00 Changeable Electronic Variable Message Sign ("CEVMS"):

15. What will become of CEVMS that were previously classified as "On-Premise" with respect to spacing and remote monitoring requirements?

The changes to the rules relating to CEVMS spacing (Rule 12.C.2.a) and remote monitoring (Rule 12.C.5(3)) apply only to "Advertising Devices". If "Compensation" is not being exchanged the sign is not considered an "Advertising Device" under the rules and, therefore, those CEVMS spacing and remote monitoring rules do not apply.

COMMENTS ON CDOT'S EMERGENCY RULES

I want to thank CDOT for the opportunity to comment on its new emergency rules related to outdoor advertising, and in good faith, better understand how the new language will affect all sign/advertising device owners and to comply with the intent of the Highway Beautification Act of 1965. I am including 5 questions in this letter that I hope CDOT will provide comprehensive answers to so everyone will have a better understanding of how CDOT will interpret these new rules.

One area of concern that needs clarification for all sign/advertising device owners is how CDOT will now apply the term "compensation" as it relates to what now qualifies as an advertising device. In CDOT's "Responses to Stakeholder Comments/Inquiries" CDOT has stated that "The public should operate on a presumption that if the exchange of anything of value is directly or indirectly paid or earned in exchange for the erection or existence of a sign designed, intended, or used to advertise or inform by any person or entity, that is considered Compensation." CDOT needs to further clarify this position for all sign owners.

"Marrying" the two defined terms, "Advertising Device" and "Compensation" can be read in this manner:

"Advertising device means any outdoor sign intended, or used to advertise or inform for which the exchange of anything of value is directly or indirectly paid or earned in exchange for its erection or existence by any person or entity".

This language is very broad and could impact every sign/advertising device in existence or any new one that will be built in the future. The plain language would seem to suggest that if any "compensation" is paid by any person or entity for a sign's existence that the sign becomes an advertising device, which thus requires a permit from CDOT if that sign/advertising device can meet all of CDOT's rules, including size, spacing, lighting, and zoning requirements. Whenever any person or entity applies to a local government to erect a sign on their property a permit fee/plan review fee is almost always required to be paid to the local government for that privilege. This is a process almost universal to every local government and is required before a person or entity can erect a sign. This isn't hypothetical, but a fact. With this in mind, can CDOT clarify this question:

1. "When a payment of a fee is made to a local government (that is required) prior to erection of any sign/advertising device, will that be considered "compensation" by CDOT"?

From CDOT's answer in the "Responses to Stakeholder Comments/Inquiries" the public should presume it does. If it does, then probably almost all existing, and new signs will now be required to obtain a permit from CDOT. This question is even more critical now that a sign owner can sign an affidavit stating their sign is not an advertising device under penalty of perjury. CDOT should be able to clarify up front what would constitute "perjury" and assure the sign owner that today, tomorrow, and every day in the future that CDOT will remain consistent with its determinations made today.

Another question that needs an answer today from CDOT is this:

2. "When a person or an entity pays a monetary sum to physically purchase a sign/advertising device to be erected, does that constitute an exchange of anything of value (compensation) for that signs existence"?

Both the above questions concern a person or entity that is DIRECTLY exchanging something of value (money) for that sign's erection and/or existence. According to the plain language of the new rules, and CDOT's answer in its "Responses to Stakeholder Comments/Inquiries" on this subject, any person or entity that signs an affidavit will probably be committing perjury if they paid a sign/permit review fee and/or physically was responsible for the purchase of that sign/advertising device.

Two other questions to answer:

- 3. When a sign/advertising device owner pays a monetary fee to have the sign/advertising device installed (responsible for the sign/advertising device's erection), does that create an advertising device under CDOT's regulatory authority?
- 4. If a property owner leases out their building/sign to another entity (landlord/tenant relationship) and part/all of the rent paid includes the use of a structure to advertise on, does that constitute the exchange of anything of value (compensation) thereby, creating an advertising device?

These aren't hypothetical questions but are real life instances that happen regularly in this State. CDOT needs to better define what conduct they regulate and what conduct they don't regulate within their "control zone" adjacent to State Highways. This will aid all sign owners, and will help ensure that CDOT will remain consistent on what constitutes "compensation" for each and every administration going forward. Everyone benefits!

Anyone who has been in the sign business any length of time knows that it is CDOT's lack of consistency in enforcing its rules in a non-biased manner is why CDOT has found itself having to change its rules. Specifically, it's all over CDOT's wavering on the 500' from an Interstate interchange rule (Rule 7.00 (D) (2)) that has led everyone to this point (CDOT ended up in a federal court). Sometimes CDOT will enforce the Federal Governments restrictions on this rule and sometimes they enforce their own more restrictive interpretation of this rule.

A question was raised by a Stakeholder if CDOT was going to include the urban area exemption from this rule. CDOT stated that it wasn't at this time. If CDOT would follow the words of The Colorado Supreme Court there would be NO need to change this language, just adopt the Federal Governments restrictions on this rule as The Supreme Court of Colorado has stated that is what the State should be doing.

The Supreme Court of Colorado, in Pigg v. State Department of Highways (CDOT) (746 P.2d 961), stated:

"The Act, as it was originally enacted, followed the formal requirements and utilized the language of the Beautification Act. As the Act was amended over the years, the legislature ensured the statute's conformity with the Beautification Act by adopting those definitions and restrictions set out in federal regulations. The practice of the legislature in conforming the Act to the federal law with few substantial changes suggests both that the legislature's primary concern has remained the preservation of the state's share of federal highway funds, and that the legislature intended to prohibit only those signs that would conflict with federal law".

They go on to state:

"The Act was modeled on the Beautification Act and designed to permit the erection and maintenance of any sign consistent with the restrictions imposed by the federal law".

and continue with:

"We noted above that the scant legislative history available suggests only that the legislature intended to permit the maintenance of any sign not inconsistent with the Beautification Act".

An important point to what they said is that the state of Colorado has adopted the Federal Government's definitions and RESTRICTIONS! CDOT already knows that the Federal Government will allow signs within 500' of an Interstate interchange if the land where the sign sits is incorporated or in an URBAN AREA. CDOT proposed last year to amend its language in that Rule to include urban areas. One would like to think that CDOT had cleared this with the Federal Government before proposing this new language in order to make sure that the State would remain compliant with the HBA. They have also permitted many signs through the urban area exemption in the past but refuse to do it on a consistent basis. If you aren't one of their "favored" companies you don't get the urban area exemption. This inconsistent interpretation has directly led to this revision of rules!

CDOT is forbidden to permit any signs inconsistent with the Beautification Act and the terms agreed to in its July 9, 1971 HBA agreement with the federal government (including CDOT's rule 7.00 (D) (2), the 500' from an Interstate interchange rule). Both parties, State of Colorado and the Federal Government, agreed to the language contained in Rule 7.00(D) (2) in this agreement. The Supreme Court, in the Pigg case, had it right when they stated that The State of Colorado had adopted the Federal Government's definitions and restrictions. What better way to comply with this forced agreement than to adopt the Federal Government's definitions and restrictions to ensure Colorado isn't jeopardizing 10% of their rightful highway dollars from the Federal Government. But CDOT doesn't always do that. Sometimes they will apply the Federal Government's restrictions on Rule 7.00(D) (2) and sometimes they apply a more restrictive interpretation. CDOT has received numerous complaints about signs that aren't located in an incorporated area (they are located within an urban area though) but are within 500' of an Interstate interchange (they were being asked to apply the same terms and restrictions as they were applying to other applicants that weren't allowed to use the urban area exemption). CDOT has continually refused to revoke these permits, and instead, continually reissues these permits year after year. Using the federal governments restrictions, they are all legal. Using CDOT's restrictions (no urban area exemption) they are all illegal.

Since CDOT refuses to revoke these permits, and it is forbidden by law from permitting or renewing any illegal signs, CDOT's continual renewing of these permits must mean they meet the restrictions imposed by law. Otherwise, CDOT is permitting illegal signs and allows them to proliferate throughout the State.

From the above discussion it is imperative that CDOT better define what constitutes "compensation". If it doesn't, one can safely assume that more inconsistent "rulings" will be made by CDOT. With this in mind, a solution that might be acceptable to any sign owner is that CDOT just issue "memorandums of agreements" to all sign/advertising device owners, whereby, CDOT allows any sign to continue to operate in this State until the federal government threatens to withhold any highway funds due to that sign (like what is stated in the already issued memorandum of agreements). This has been done in the past with CDOT's blessing and some signs have operated legally in this State for over 10 years under a memorandum of agreement (as an example, see permit files for permit numbers 10685, and 10686). This must be a legal option for signs to legally operate in this State or, once again, CDOT is willingly allowing signs to operate illegally in this State which is strictly against statute and the terms agreed to in the State's HBA agreement with the Federal Government.

For my fifth and final question I ask this:

5. "Since memorandum of agreements must be legal (such as the ones issued for permit numbers 10685 and 10686 that have been operating for over 10 years under one) can I get CDOT to issue me one for the location I have in dispute with CDOT (I-25/highway 119 location)".

I will take it and take my chances, as I know the location is legal under the Federal Government's restrictions on this issue. But so does CDOT or they wouldn't have proposed amending the language on this rule last year! Hopefully CDOT will show some consistency on this matter and issue memorandum of agreements for any, and all, sign/advertising device owners who desire to operate this way.

Lastly, I just want to reiterate, that the only reason these rules are having to be changed is because of CDOT's inconsistent enforcement of its rules (specifically, Rule 7.00 (D) (2)). All this time and effort is because CDOT fails to follow the words of the Supreme Court of Colorado and consistently apply the Federal Government's definitions and restrictions on that Rule.

Thanks for allowing me to opine in this matter and I look forward to getting answers to these very important questions so all sign/advertising device owners can be assured that moving forward CDOT will apply its Rules in a consistent manner and everyone will be treated equally under the law! Thanks!

Colorado Department of Transportation
Rules, Policies, and Procedures Administrator

18 August 2021

Administrator Natalie Lutz,

On behalf of the International Sign Association and the Colorado Sign Association, I would like to submit our organizations' comments on the August 2021 Outdoor Advertising Permanent Rule Rulemaking. The International Sign Association (ISA) is a 2000-member trade association, the members of which are manufacturers, users and suppliers of on-premises signs and other visual communications products from the 50 United States and 60 countries around the world. ISA's in-state affiliate, the Colorado Sign Association includes 71 member sign companies and suppliers headquartered or with significant operational facilities in Colorado. On behalf of our 71 Colorado member companies, ISA and CSA support, promote and improve the visual communications industry, which sustains the nation's retail, distribution, service and manufacturing industries.

Thank you to the Colorado Department of Transportation (TDOT) for engaging in an open process with significant stakeholder participation. As difficult as it has been to keep up with the changing direction of the rulemaking process through its interruption in 2020 and restart in 2021, the Department has done an admirable job of notification of stakeholders and invitation to participate in public forums.

ISA and CSA generally support the rulemaking, both in its intent and in the specific language of the provisions being added to Colorado Administrative Code (2 CCR 601-3). ISA and CSA recognize that CDOT's rulemaking is a result of the recent changes in Colorado law (Senate Bill 21-263). As such, the Department is obligated to defer to the language and policy aims contained within that legislation. However, we have some limited concerns about the definition language that was adopted in SB 21-263 and how CDOT may enforce these new rules.

Definitions of "Advertising Device" and "Compensation"

Under SB 21-263, the amended definition of "Advertising device" is:

any outdoor sign, display, device, figure, painting, drawing, message, placard, poster, billboard, or any other contrivance designed, intended, or used to advertise or INFORM, FOR WHICH COMPENSATION IS DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY PAID OR EARNED IN EXCHANGE FOR ITS ERECTION OR EXISTENCE BY ANY PERSON OR ENTITY, and having the capacity of being visible from the travel way of any state highway, except any advertising device on a vehicle using the highway OR ANY ADVERTISING DEVICE THATIS PART OF A COMPREHENSIVE DEVELOPMENT. The term "vehicle using the highway" does not include any vehicle parked near said highway for advertising purposes.

And the definition of "Compensation" is:

THE EXCHANGE OF ANYTHING OF VALUE, INCLUDING MONEY, SECURITIES, REAL PROPERTY INTERESTS, PERSONAL PROPERTY INTERESTS, GOODS OR SERVICES, PROMISE OF FUTURE DEVELOPMENT, EXCHANGE OF FAVOR, OR FORBEARANCE OF DEBT.

Under these definitions, ISA and CSA are concerned that any retail or office tenant paying its lease to the owner of a building could be considered as "indirectly paid" compensation for the display of the tenant's name or message on a wall sign or freestanding sign structure.

We recognize that CDOT's answers during the July 9, 2021 workshop describe the process under 3.2.A.1.b for a property owner to execute an affidavit as evidence that a sign is not an Advertising Device. Perhaps the Department's intent is not to require permits or enforce spacing requirements against what CDOT currently calls "on-premises signs"; however, the new process for Declaratory Orders (14.00) allows for any person to petition CDOT concerning an Advertising Device.

A search of current commercial office space shows a Denver building marketed with "Opportunity for spec suites, full floors, collaborative work space, exceptional views, and building signage". Another current listing in Greenwood Village notes "The property is immediately adjacent to I-25 with building parapet signage available on each tower." When a tenant signs a lease for one of those spaces (or the hundreds of others that are or will be marketed in a similar manner) and pays extra for that signage at the roofline or on the large top panel on a multitenant pylon, any person can petition CDOT to have the sign declared an Advertising Device. Perhaps an individual dislikes all illuminated signs or has a direct view of a sign that disturbs their view-shed. In those scenarios, "the exchange of anything of value" for that signage could lead to (on-premises) building or freestanding signs being determined to be Advertising Devices by the language enacted through SB 21-263.

While CDOT is unlikely to return to the draft regulations from 2020, that earlier language contained a means test that would make the on-premises sign industry more comfortable that signs containing messages related to the activities conducted on the property would not be regulated in the same manner as a billboard. From the 2020 draft rulemaking:

- i) The Property or Sign owner, or their lessee or agent, markets the Sign to third parties as a device that can be used to advertise products or services;
- ii) The Property or Sign owner, or their lessee or agent, receives money or Value that derives from the act of advertising on the Sign, and not merely from increased profits derived from displaying the availability of the activity, good or service on the Property;
- iii) The Property or Sign owner, or their or agent, has one or more contracts concerning the Sign with third parties who are engaged in the business of outdoor advertising and such contracts concern outdoor advertising; or
- iv) The Property or Sign owner, or their lessee or agent, have one or more contracts which contain provisions that suggests a substantial portion of the Value exchanged in the contract is for advertising, rather than profits from sales on the Property.

These provisions would avoid the concerns that on-premises signs could be challenged and regulated as if they were Advertising Devices.

Advertising Devices on Scenic Byways

Colorado law long has prohibited Advertising Devices on Scenic Byways. ISA and CSA agree with this prohibition. However, the current proposal eliminates the exceptions (9.00.B.2) that allow for new on-premises signs. Under the Declaratory Orders process (14.00) discussed above, we are concerned that on-premises signs located along the route of several Colorado scenic byways could be subject to challenge from individuals who don't want ANY signs along a scenic byway, even one for a business located there.

In particular, we are concerned about the potential impacts to businesses located on these scenic byways:

Frontier Pathways (Pueblo city center)

Top of the Rockies (Leadville, new extension to Aspen)

Colorado River Headwaters (Kremmling, Hot Sulphur Springs, Green Ridge, Grand Lake)

South Platte River Trail (Julesberg)

Pawnee Pioneer Trails (Fort Morgan, Sterling, Briggsdale, Ault)

CEVMS Advertising Devices

As discussed above, the Declaratory Orders process could be used by individuals to challenge the presence of any new sign. As it pertains to CEVMS, our concerns are with the provisions of 12.C.2.a and 12.C.5(3). While it may be appropriate for 1000' spacing between digital billboards, applying this type of spacing requirement to onpremises signs would be very harmful to retail businesses that own on-premises electronic message centers.

In addition, the threat of an on-premises CEVMS being classified as an Advertising Device (through the Declaratory Orders process) necessitates a mention of an existing Colorado regulation that could take on new degree of significance. Existing 12.C.5(3) requires that a CEVMS "shall be capable of being remotely monitored to ensure conformance with these Rules and state and federal laws". While this monitoring capability is common for digital billboards, in part because the billboard operator needs to ensure that advertisers' messages are being displayed properly and on schedule, it is rare to nonexistent for on-premises message centers. If an on-premises message center is reclassified as an CEVMS advertising device, it almost certainly will be in violation of 12.C.5(3) without any easy way to bring the sign into conformance.

ISA and CSA believe that CDOT's draft regulations will be beneficial to the state by better protecting the rules from a challenge on the basis of content neutrality. However, we are concerned that the definitions contained within the former Senate Bill 21-263 could be problematic as interpreted by CDOT staff or within the court system. And we are concerned that the Declaratory Orders process could be used to threaten the exemption that most on-premises signs (or "signs other than Advertising Devices") receive from CDOT permitting requirements.

Sincerely,

Director, Industry Programs

Re: Comments on Proposed Permanent Rulemaking - 2 CCR § 601-3

Dear Ms. Lutz:

Thank you for the opportunity to provide comments on the proposed permanent rulemaking with regard to 2 CCR § 601-3. The proposed permanent rulemaking is in response to a new law, SB21-263, that potentially affects all signs along Colorado's extensive state highways. As the Colorado Department of Transportation ("CDOT") puts it, "Under the old law, to determine whether a sign needed a permit, CDOT arguably had to review the words and pictures of the sign to figure out the type of sign it was." According to CDOT, "under the new law only signs visible from the roadway that generate compensation require a CDOT permit."

Specifically, CDOT will require permits for all signs (not just pole signs, monument signs, or billboard signs) that are "advertising devices" as defined in SB21-263, and will not require permits for signs that are not "advertising devices." Simply obtaining a permit is not necessarily an easy solution for many sign owners (or would-be sign owners) because permits will not be issued for advertising devices in certain locations (including but not limited to locations within 500 feet of other signs, or within 500 feet of highway intersections that are not in municipalities), or for advertising devices that have more than two panels facing in the same direction (as most shopping center signs have).

Under the new law and the proposed regulations, "advertising device" is defined as:

any outdoor sign, display, device, figure, painting, drawing, message, placard, poster, billboard, or any other contrivance designed, intended, or used to advertise

or inform, for which compensation³ is directly or indirectly paid or earned in exchange for its erection or existence by any person or entity, and having the capacity of being visible from the travel way of any state highway, except any advertising device on a vehicle using the highway or any advertising device that is part of a comprehensive development.⁴ The term "vehicle using the highway" does not include any vehicle parked near said highway for advertising purposes.⁵

Based on the plain language of the new law, it would appear that CDOT is expanding its reach to all signs along Colorado's highway corridors—imposing new annual permit requirements and onerous investigation and enforcement mechanisms on property owners and businesses that have never previously had to deal with CDOT at all, or at least not in this capacity.⁶ In short, CDOT and its Colorado Outdoor Advertising Association ("COAA") lobbying partners (more on this infra, at page 6) took a constitutionally infirm outdoor advertising law and made it much worse.

The comments in this letter are respectfully submitted on behalf of our clients, StreetMediaGroup, LLC ("STREETMEDIA") and Turnpike Media, LLC ("TURNPIKE"). 7,8 StreetMedia and Turnpike submit that SB21-263 (like its predecessor) is unconstitutional. CDOT is proposing permanent rules that do not remedy that situation. SB21-263 and the proposed rules put sign owners up and ⁴ "Comprehensive Development" is defined as "a group of two or more lots or parcels of land used primarily for multiple separate commercial or industrial activities that: (I) Is located entirely on one side of a highway; (II) Consists of lots or parcels that are contiguous except for public or private roadways or driveways that provide access to the development; (III) Has been approved by the relevant local government as a development with a common identity and plan for public and private improvements; (IV) Has common areas such as parking, amenities, and landscaping; and (V) Has an approved plan of common ownership in which the owners have recorded irrevocable rights to use common areas and that provides for the management and maintenance of common areas." A "Comprehensive development' includes all land used or to be used or occupied for the activities of the development, including buildings, parking, storage and service areas, streets, driveways, and reasonably necessary landscaped areas. A comprehensive development includes only land that is used for a purpose reasonably related to the activities of the development." ⁸ Our comments regarding SB21-263 are of record and apply with equal force to the proposed rulemaking. down thousands of miles of Colorado's interstate and state highways at risk of invasive enforcement tactics (including thorough examinations of their books and records) if CDOT does not like what they say on their signs.

The "Compensation-Based Approach" Puts Unfettered Discretion in the CDOT Enforcement Official.

CDOT announced publicly that "[t]he new compensation-based approach makes it easier for landowners and sign owners to understand whether they need a CDOT permit." But in recent sworn testimony, Jared Esquibel (a high-ranking CDOT employee who oversees the outdoor advertising program) ("ESQUIBEL") could not explain "what it means to have compensation directly or indirectly paid or earned in exchange for its erection or existence by any person or entity." During his deposition, Esquibel was asked, "Do you think it requires expertise to find out whether the sign is an advertising device under the statute?" He answered, "Yes." Then he essentially admitted that even he—the person who oversees the Outdoor Advertising Program—does not have that expertise.

In his sworn deposition, Esquibel concluded that the definition of "advertising device" is "vague." That should be scary to both CDOT and the general public because the determination of whether any given sign is an "advertising device" (and therefore subject to CDOT standards, permit requirements, and enforcement procedures) is delegated to low-level CDOT enforcement officials who are apparently not carefully supervised. Since no one (including the person who oversees the Outdoor Advertising Program) knows what the definition of "advertising device" actually includes, SB21-263 and the proposed changes to 2 CCR § 601-3 give unfettered discretion to CDOT employees to harass and prosecute people for exercising their First Amendment rights.

Indeed, under the proposed 2 CCR § 601-3:3.2.A.1.b., a sign owner who CDOT accuses of violating the proposed rules may be forced to choose between the harsh (and in many cases, terribly expensive) penalty of removing its sign or taking a big risk and executing "an affidavit under penalty of perjury as evidence that the device is not an advertising device" (and then potentially facing a perjury charge if CDOT sees things differently). ¹³ Remarkably often, just applying for a CDOT permit will not be an available option. Indeed, a huge number of signs along Colorado's state highways will not comply with the spacing standards and design limitations (e.g., not more than two panels per side) set out in SB21-263 and the proposed rules.

"The Best of Intentions, But Bad Judgment "14

In its notice of adoption of emergency rules, CDOT stated, "Under the old state law, to determine whether a sign needed a permit, CDOT arguably had to review the words and pictures of the sign to figure out the type of device it was." It then admitted that this could result in a "violation of free speech." CDOT continues, "Now, under the new state law only advertising devices visible from the roadway that generate compensation require a CDOT permit." ¹⁵

Time and again, CDOT has proclaimed that SB21-263 and the proposed new regulations apply to signs that generate compensation to their owners. According to CDOT representatives, such signs require CDOT permits because they are "advertising devices." But the law does not say that an "advertising device" means a sign that generates compensation for its owner for the display of messages. He when pressed, Esquibel admitted that under oath. Consequently, CDOT's public proclamations in this regard create far more confusion than clarity.

CDOT's refuses to institutionally acknowledge that the plain language of a law that it pushed through the legislature does not actually say what CDOT publicly claims it says, despite Esquibel's remarkably candid and cogent admission in the regard (see the second bullet point on the next page for details).

Notably, through the end of January of this year, CDOT strenuously argued to an administrative law judge that 2 CCR § 601-3 must be applied according to its "plain language." CDOT even

According to multiple recent reports based on Colorado Open Records Act requests, CDOT employees lied to the tech companies so that roads that were actually open would show up in GPS applications as closed. According to reports, CDOT employees did not want to come clean because they were concerned that telling the truth would "damage the agency's reputation," such that tech companies would not trust CDOT anymore. The bottom line, according to one of those responsible, was that the employees had "the best of intentions, but bad judgment." See https://www.thedenverchannel.com/news/local-news/did-cdot-lie-internal-cdot-emails-show-why-employees-decided-to-misinform-drivers.

Department of

suggested that such application was necessary because the agency has a history of interpreting and applying its laws in ways that do not comport with how they are written, creating uneven results. Now, CDOT declares on multiple fronts that the plain language of the law does not mean what it says, and CDOT will apply and enforce its own construct—a construct that is unrelated to the actual text. By way of example and not limitation—

- Anthony Lovato, who is CDOT's "subject matter expert" as to the outdoor advertising program ("LOVATO"), stated at the recent rulemaking workshop that signs that exist because compensation was paid to a contractor to erect them, are exempt from the law—even though those signs are, in fact, "advertising devices" under the plain language of SB21-263 (which is incorporated into the proposed rules by reference).
- Similarly, Esquibel said in his sworn deposition that he did not interpret CDOT's new compensation model to require a permit for "the fabrication of a sign or the construction (sic) erection of the sign." Instead, he said, "I interpret it on a first read as compensation for the actual message on the sign." When asked whether the law said that, he responded, "no." When pressed further, he confessed, "I would say this definition is vague." 23
- Less than a month after Esquibel's deposition, and even though he admitted that the law did not actually say that a sign is an "advertising device" (subject to CDOT permitting requirements) if compensation was exchanged for displaying messages, CDOT adopted emergency rules and announced, "Now, under the new state law only advertising devices visible from the roadway that generate compensation require a CDOT permit."²⁴

In sum, the proposed amendments to 2 CCR § 601-3 double-down on an unconstitutional approach that will ultimately hurt every sign owner and sign user along tens of thousands of miles of state and interstate highways in Colorado.

²⁴ Emergency Rule Notice at 2.

The Company CDOT Keeps Matters.

CDOT's about-face on the issue of interpreting its rules according to their "plain language" is troubling, particularly given the larger context of this rulemaking process. Public records show that CDOT and its lobbying partner, the COAA, worked in close coordination to rush SB21-263 through the Colorado legislature. ²⁵ CDOT's legislative liaison, Andrew Karsian, sold the COAA-endorsed bill to one of its ultimate sponsors, Senator Smallwood, as follows:

The bill we would like to introduce is in partnership with the outdoor advertising industry [COAA] and will simplify the existing regulations we have, and it will protect the regulations needed to ensure bad actors do not install billboards that will be out of compliance with federal and state law.²⁶

For context, according to CDOT's 2021 roadside advertising permit list, the three largest members of COAA (Lamar, Outfront, and Mile High), collectively hold well over half of the CDOT-issued outdoor advertising permits. Not less than 18 of those permits are for long-standing illegal signs. CDOT confessed to the administrative law judge that it is "wary" of reviewing or revoking the wrongfully issued permits for those illegal signs, but declined to offer any details as to why.²⁷ The company that CDOT keeps matters. CDOT should not ignore the optics. Its credibility is at stake.

SB21-263 and the proposed rules chill free speech—not by limiting the total number of signs along highways, but instead by preventing sign owners from using their signs in the way that COAA's members do (that is, for what was historically called "off-premises" advertising). This is a big deal because agency rules are not supposed to chill free speech (under the First Amendment) or stifle free markets (under C.R.S. § 24-4-101.5).

The Colorado Administrative Procedures Act provides:

The general assembly finds that an agency should not regulate or restrict the freedom of any person to conduct his or her affairs, use his or her property, or deal with others on mutually agreeable terms unless it finds, after a full consideration of the effects of the agency action, that the action would benefit the public interest and encourage the benefits of a free enterprise system for the citizens of this state.²⁸

Under the Proposed Regulations, CDOT Will Still Be "Looking at the Content," Chilling Speech, and Violating Constitutional Rights.

In the "Questions and Answers form the Stakeholder Workshop" document ("Q&A") related to the proposed permanent rules, CDOT claims, without support, that "CDOT will not be looking at the content of a sign in order to determine whether a CDOT permit is required, rather, CDOT will only regulate those signs for which Compensation is paid or earned in exchange for its erection or existence." Since CDOT cannot look at the physical structure of a sign and determine whether "compensation is paid or earned in exchange for its erection or existence," CDOT enforcement officials will still be "looking at the content" of signs as they "monitor[] interstates and highways to inventory signs that are permitted." 1

CDOT says that "Within the course of this monitoring, if CDOT comes upon a sign that is not permitted, CDOT will make contact with the property owner to determine if their sign is an Advertising Device." Yet CDOT specifically will not answer the question of how it will conduct its monitoring and make the determination as to whether it believes a sign is subject to permitting requirements, nor will it give the public any idea what types of transactions implicate the "compensation model," turning a run-of-the-mill sign into a regulated "advertising device" for which a CDOT permit is required. Instead, it just amplifies the confusion by doubling-down on language that is unrelated to its other representations—

Hypothetical sign sites or scenarios cannot be uniformly commented on by CDOT. The public should operate on a presumption that if the exchange of anything of value is directly or indirectly paid or earned in exchange for the erection or existence of a sign designed, intended, or used to advertise or inform by any person or entity, that is considered Compensation. In the event Compensation is paid or earned, the sign is considered an Advertising Device regulated by CDOT.³³

CDOT does not want to admit that the threshold enforcement question will arise only when a CDOT employee reads a sign³⁴ or a third party complains about a sign.³⁵ Yet ultimately CDOT will find that there is no other way to implement this law. CDOT does not have a statutory mandate to require all sign owners to periodically submit their books and records to CDOT for examination, and such a requirement, if enacted, would also be unconstitutional in its own right.

CDOT Still Needs to Answer the Fundamental Questions.

StreetMedia and Turnpike are not the only companies that are nervous about CDOT's lack of candor during this rulemaking process. A representative of Jeannie Gafford Signs (who is not a Fairfield and Woods client) pleaded with CDOT, "We have permitted signs and would like [to know] in plain English how this is going to effect (sic) our Company." StreetMedia and Turnpike echo that sentiment. In fact, the "plain English" approach is required by the Colorado Administrative Procedures Act.

CDOT should also be troubled by the predicament that SB21-263 creates. CDOT's employees do not seem to know what the law is intended to do, or how the law will actually be administered and enforced. As to the latter point, Esquibel offered up some candor in his sworn testimony:

- Q: How would CDOT consistently enforce this 21-263 along 22,000 miles of highway corridor?
- A: I don't know.

To date, CDOT refuses to comment on how the proposed amendments to 2 CCR § 601-3 may apply in ubiquitous situations like:

• Whether a commercial landlord who charges tenants for placement on an existing sign would need a CDOT permit; or ³⁴ In his sworn deposition, Esquibel viewed a picture of a sign for Nature's Herbs in Garden City, Colorado, which is located "on-premises." He was advised, "That billboard advertises a marijuana facility, and that marijuana facility is on the same site that the billboard is located," and then asked, "is that an advertising device?" His response was "I would say no," and continued, "You said it was advertising for the company on the existing site. So nobody's compensating them for that sign, right?" That question was met with, "how to you know that?" to which Mr. Esquibel answered, "I don't know." Id. at 90-91.

³⁶ Comments on emergency rulemaking provided by Jeannie Gafford Signs via email to Ms. Lutz on July 22, 2021.

• Whether a commercial landlord who charges a tenant for the erection of a new sign on that tenant's behalf would need a CDOT permit.

Of course, there are a number of other common arrangements CDOT's regulations should address (or at least CDOT should offer some guidance on when it promulgates its new rules), including but not limited to:

- Whether a commercial real estate broker needs a CDOT permit for the display of a sign on a client's property along a state highway, where the landowner pays compensation to the broker to market the property; or
- Whether a franchisee needs a CDOT permit for the display of its franchisor's signage along a state highway, where the franchisee pays compensation to the franchisor for the erection of such signage; or
- Whether a sign company that owns a client's sign and leases it to the client (as a financing mechanism) must obtain a CDOT permit as a result of the lease arrangement.

Sign owners, businesses, governmental, civic, and religious organizations also need to know how CDOT will deal with spacing requirements as the number of signs subject to CDOT permit requirements mushrooms—that is, who will get to display (or continue to display) their signs and who will not, and who will get to build new signs and who will not.

Some Pressure Relief is Warranted as CDOT Sorts Out These Problems.

CDOT is not supposed to adopt rules that "negatively impact the state's business climate by impeding the ability of local businesses to compete with out-of-state businesses, by discouraging new or existing businesses from moving to this state, and by hindering economic competitiveness and job creation."³⁷ On this record, we question whether CDOT has committed appropriate resources to study the impact of its proposed rules in this regard, even though it has a "continuing responsibility" to do so. ³⁸ We believe the record shows that implementation of SB21-263 using the proposed rules will inevitably inflict significant collateral damage statewide. ³⁹ To help mitigate that collateral damage, we offer the following suggestions—

³⁷ C.R.S. § 24-4-101.5.

 $^{^{38}}$ Id

³⁹ This is just what the legislature warns agencies not to do: "The general assembly further recognizes that agency action taken without evaluation of its economic impact may have unintended effects, which may include barriers to competition, reduced economic efficiency, reduced consumer choice, increased producer and consumer costs, and restrictions on employment." Id.

First, CDOT should expansively interpret the definition of "comprehensive development" to include as many properties (and signs) as possible, instantly relieving at least those owners from unexpected and onerous new regulatory burdens. That is because signs within "comprehensive developments" are not "advertising devices" and are therefore not subject to CDOT permit requirements.

Second, CDOT should promptly provide clarity as to what signs are subject to permit requirements and what signs are not, answering the questions set out on page 9 of this letter, preferably in rule form in order to provide stability over time.

Third, CDOT should delete or modify 2 CCR § 601-3:7.00.D.2., commonly known as the "interchange rule." The interchange rule is not mandated by the statute. Property owners should not be silenced just because their land is located by an interchange in an urbanized yet unincorporated county.

The "interchange rule" did not make sense even before SB21-263. It makes even less sense now that the reach of CDOT's permitting requirement is, on its face, much different and much more extensive than it used to be. That is, billboards (formerly known as "off-premise signs") are no longer the stated target of the regulations, and based on the plain language of the phrase "advertising device" it would appear that many billboards may no longer be subject to CDOT permit requirements. Many other signs, which are commonly found (and indeed, necessary) around developed and developing interchanges, now appear to be in the regulatory crosshairs.

CDOT knows that Rule 7.00.D.2. does not work. In fact, CDOT has provided cogent analysis as to why it should be changed. In October 2020, CDOT was just days away from promulgating a change to 2 CCR § 601-3.D.2., along with updates to the definitions of "urbanized area" and "urban area" in 2 CCR § 601-3:1.31. The rationale for those amendments (which CDOT also acknowledged in administrative court)⁴⁰ has not materially changed, and if anything it is even more urgent today, given the total confusion about what CDOT intends to regulate and how CDOT will administer and enforce its new regulatory program.⁴¹

⁴⁰ Administrative Case MSJ Response at 13 (acknowledging that a 1966 memo from the U.S. Department of Commerce regarding federal-state agreements regarding outdoor advertising acknowledged that by "maintaining strict spacing criteria in essentially rural areas, and permitting more signs in built-up or urban areas, we feel on[e] of the purposes of the Act has been served, i.e., the preservation of areas of natural beauty, and reflecting customary use.")

⁴¹ One COAA member previously suggested that the 1971 Agreement does not allow changes to the interchange rule. We disagree for reasons we have articulated in our prior correspondence with CDOT. Moreover, we believe that whatever individual participants in this rulemaking process may think about the procedural requirements, this issue could simply be resolved by stipulation in federal court.

StreetMedia and Turnpike urge CDOT to either delete the interchange rule or make the following changes to 2 CCR § 601-3—changes that the agency supported less than a year ago—

1.31 "Urban Area" and "Urbanized Area" "Urban Area" pursuant to 23 U.S.C. 101 (33) means an urbanized area designated by the Bureau of the Census having a population of 5,000 or more and not within any urbanized area (as defined by 23 U.S.C. 101 (34)), within boundaries to be fixed by responsible State and local officials.

A. "Urban Area" means an urbanized area or, in the case of an urbanized area encompassing more than one state, that part of the urbanized area in each state, or urban place as designated by the U.S. Bureau of the Census having a population of 5,000 or more and not within any urbanized area, within boundaries to be fixed by responsible state and local officials in cooperation with each other, subject to approval by the U.S. Secretary of Transportation. Such boundaries shall encompass, at a minimum, the entire urban place designated by the U.S. Bureau of the Census.

B. "Urbanized Area" means an area with a population of 50,000 or more designated by the U.S. Bureau of the Census, within boundaries to be fixed by responsible state and local officials in cooperation with each other, subject to approval by the U.S. Secretary of Transportation. Such boundaries shall encompass, at a minimum, the entire urbanized area within a state as designated by the U.S. Bureau of the Census. Urbanized Area designations may be viewed on the TIGERweb Decennial map provided on the U.S. Census Bureau's website at https://tigerweb.geo.census.gov/.

D. Spacing of Signs

- 1. Advertising Devices on Control Routes may not be located in such a manner as to obscure, or otherwise physically interfere with the effectiveness of any official traffic sign, signal, or device, obstruct or physically interfere with the driver's view of approaching, merging or intersecting traffic.
- 2. In the Control Area near Interstates Highways and Freeways:
 - a. No two Signs shall be spaced less than 500 feet apart.
 - b. Outside of incorporated villages and cities, no Advertising Devices may shall not be located adjacent to or within 500 feet of an interchange, intersection at grade, or safety Rest Area if the Advertising Device is located outside of an Urbanized Area and outside of the boundaries of an incorporated town or city. The 500 feet is to be measured along the Interstate or Freeway from the beginning or ending of pavement widening at the exit from or entrance to the main-traveled way.

- i. This spacing limitation applies where the proposed location of the Sign is located outside of an Urbanized Area and outside of the boundaries of an incorporated town or city regardless of the location of the interchange, intersection at grade, or safety Rest Area.
- ii. The limits of an interchange, intersection at grade, or safety Rest Area span from the beginning of pavement widening for an exit lane or ramp and continues through the interchange, intersection at grade, or safety Rest Area, to the point where pavement widening ends for an entrance lane or ramp.
- iii. The 500-foot measurement is to be measured parallel to the highway. This prohibition applies to the entire 660-foot Control Area adjacent to the interchange, intersection at grade, or safety Rest Area along with the 500-foot measurement adjacent thereto.
- iv. "Pavement widening" includes exit and entrance lanes and ramps, auxiliary lanes, and other lanes which terminate while allowing traffic to weave on or off the main-travelled way.
- v. For those locations where a continuous auxiliary lane extends from the entrance ramp/lane of one interchange/intersection at grade/safety Rest Area and connects to the exit ramp/lane of another interchange/intersection at grade/safety Rest Area, such that there is no clear "beginning or ending of pavement widening at the exit from or entrance to the main-traveled way," this rule prohibits signs located within 2,250 feet from the physical gore of entrance ramps/lanes and within 1,600 feet from the physical gore of exit ramps/lanes.
- 3. All other Controlled Routes except Interstate and Freeways
 - a. Outside of Urbanized Areas and incorporated townsvillages and cities, no two structures Signs shall be spaced less than 300 feet apart.
 - b. Within Urbanized Areas and incorporated townsvillages and cities, no two structures Signs shall be spaced less than 100 feet apart.

Conclusion.

The First Amendment requires clarity with respect to the purposes of the law, the standards that apply to the issuance of permits, and the standards that apply to the determination of who will be subject to a permitting requirement in the first place. Colorado statutes set out comparable requirements. Moreover, as a matter of public policy, everyone benefits when the law is clear.

It is CDOT's obligation to write rules in a manner that ordinary people can feel confident that they understand. Esquibel testified that he does not understand the most essential parts of the proposed rules. He oversees the Outdoor Advertising Program. CDOT has so far refused to provide clarity regarding how its proposed rules would be applied in commonplace scenarios. C.R.S. 24-4-103(4)(b) provides:

No rule shall be adopted unless: . . . To the extent practicable, the regulation is clearly and simply stated so that its meaning will be understood by any party required to comply with the regulation.

CDOT will require compliance with these regulations. As such, CDOT is obligated to explain them. We hope that CDOT chooses to do so.

Thank you again for the opportunity to provide comments.

Adoption of Emergency Rules Governing Outdoor Advertising in Colorado and Opportunity to Comment on Proposed Permanent Rules

1 message

Hello Stakeholder:

Since you requested notification of the Colorado Department of Transportation's rulemakings, this email serves to notify you as an interested party regarding emergency rulemaking for outdoor advertising in Colorado.

Senate Bill 21-263 took effect in Colorado on June 30, 2021, changing the permitting and enforcement process for the control of outdoor advertising devices in areas near interstates and state highways and visible to the traveling public from the roadway to a new compensation-based approach.

The attached emergency rules were adopted today to align the Colorado Department of Transportation's ("CDOT") processes for permitting and enforcement of outdoor advertising devices with the new state law under Senate Bill 21-263. The emergency rules will expire on December 02, 2021.

Additionally, CDOT invites you to submit written comments on the attached proposed permanent rules by August 18, 2021. The proposed permanent rules will make the emergency rules permanent, update the materials incorporated by reference in the rules, and add a new rule for declaratory orders. We tentatively plan to notice the proposed permanent rules with the Secretary of State on August 27, 2021, after consideration of any comments received. You will receive another update at that time with the date for the rulemaking hearing.

Please submit all written comments to dot rules@state.co.us. All comments received from stakeholders will be posted on CDOT's Rulemaking Web Page and will be available for review during the public comment period. We will redact the following information for data privacy from the submissions prior to posting online: first and last names, contact information, including business and home addresses, email addresses, and telephone numbers.

Please feel free to contact Natalie Lutz at dot_rules@state.co.us if you have any questions or would like to be removed from our stakeholder list.

Thank you for your participation in the rulemaking process and for providing feedback on the proposed rules.

Thanks,

Natalie
