

Visibility

Photo Source: Colorado Department of Public Health and the Environment

06-0011-11

Visibility

Photo Source: Colorado Department of Public Health and the Environment

06-0011-11

Visibility

Photo Source: Colorado Department of Public Health and the Environment

06-0011-11

Visibility

Photo Source: Colorado Department of Public Health and the Environment

06-0011-11

Visibility

As required under the Clean Air Act, Colorado has adopted a State Implementation Plan aimed at protecting visibility in wilderness areas and national parks. Twelve of the nation's 156 protected "Class I" areas are in Colorado:

- Black Canyon of the Gunnison Wilderness Area
- Eagles Nest Wilderness Area
- Flat Tops Wilderness Area
- Great Sand Dunes Wilderness Area
- La Garita Wilderness Area
- Maroon Bells-Snowmass Wilderness Area
- Mesa Verde National Park
- Mount Zirkel Wilderness Area
- Rawah Wilderness Area
- Rocky Mountain National Park Weminuche Wilderness Area
- West Elk Wilderness Area

Visibility

As required under the Clean Air Act, Colorado has adopted a State Implementation Plan aimed at protecting visibility in wilderness areas and national parks. Twelve of the nation's 156 protected "Class I" areas are in Colorado:

- Black Canyon of the Gunnison Wilderness Area
- Eagles Nest Wilderness Area
- Flat Tops Wilderness Area
- Great Sand Dunes Wilderness Area
- La Garita Wilderness Area
- Maroon Bells-Snowmass Wilderness Area
- Mesa Verde National Park
- Mount Zirkel Wilderness Area
- Rawah Wilderness Area
- Rocky Mountain National Park Weminuche Wilderness Area
- West Elk Wilderness Area

Visibility

As required under the Clean Air Act, Colorado has adopted a State Implementation Plan aimed at protecting visibility in wilderness areas and national parks. Twelve of the nation's 156 protected "Class I" areas are in Colorado:

- Black Canyon of the Gunnison Wilderness Area
- Eagles Nest Wilderness Area
- Flat Tops Wilderness Area
- Great Sand Dunes Wilderness Area
- La Garita Wilderness Area
- Maroon Bells-Snowmass Wilderness Area
- Mesa Verde National Park
- Mount Zirkel Wilderness Area
- Rawah Wilderness Area
- Rocky Mountain National Park Weminuche Wilderness Area
- West Elk Wilderness Area

Visibility

As required under the Clean Air Act, Colorado has adopted a State Implementation Plan aimed at protecting visibility in wilderness areas and national parks. Twelve of the nation's 156 protected "Class I" areas are in Colorado:

- Black Canyon of the Gunnison Wilderness Area
- Eagles Nest Wilderness Area
- Flat Tops Wilderness Area
- Great Sand Dunes Wilderness Area
- La Garita Wilderness Area
- Maroon Bells-Snowmass Wilderness Area
- Mesa Verde National Park
- Mount Zirkel Wilderness Area
- Rawah Wilderness Area
- Rocky Mountain National Park Weminuche Wilderness Area
- West Elk Wilderness Area

