

Historic Properties

Photo Source: Wilson & Company

07-0003-11

Historic Properties

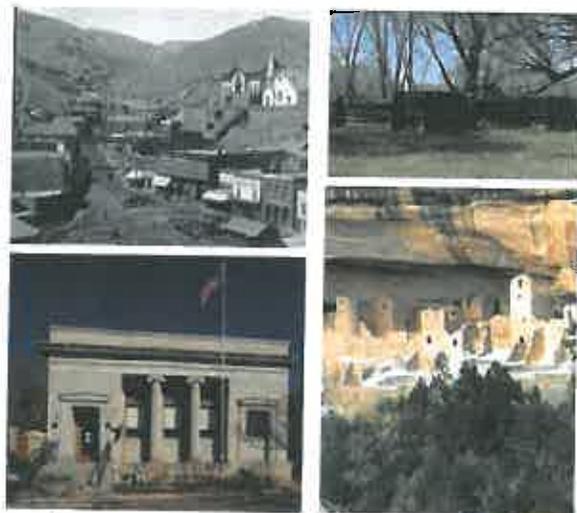

Photo Source: Wilson & Company

07-0003-11

Historic Properties

Photo Source: Wilson & Company

07-0003-11

Historic Properties

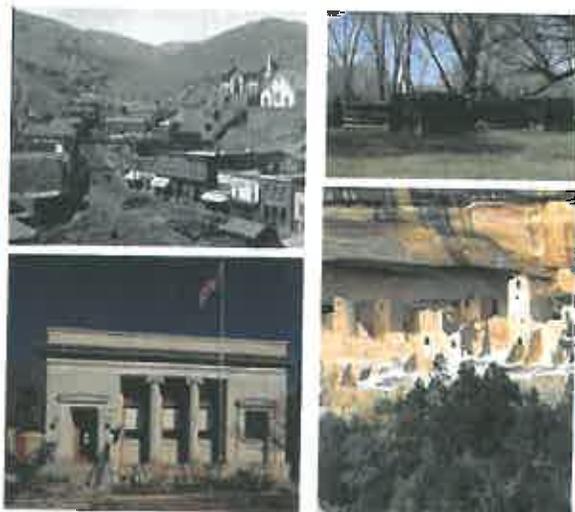

Photo Source: Wilson & Company

07-0003-11

Historic Properties

Historic Properties are defined as any prehistoric or historic districts, sites, buildings, structures, or objects that are listed in, or eligible for listing in the National Register of Historic Places. To be eligible for listing, the property must meet at least one of the following criteria:

Criterion A – the property is associated with events that have made a significant contribution to the broad patterns of history.

Criterion B – the property is associated with lives of persons significant in our past.

Criterion C – the property embodies the distinctive characteristics of a type, period, or method of construction.

Criterion D – the property has yielded or may be likely to yield, information important in prehistory or history.

Historic Properties

Historic Properties are defined as any prehistoric or historic districts, sites, buildings, structures, or objects that are listed in, or eligible for listing in the National Register of Historic Places. To be eligible for listing, the property must meet at least one of the following criteria:

Criterion A – the property is associated with events that have made a significant contribution to the broad patterns of history.

Criterion B – the property is associated with lives of persons significant in our past.

Criterion C – the property embodies the distinctive characteristics of a type, period, or method of construction.

Criterion D – the property has yielded or may be likely to yield, information important in prehistory or history.

Historic Properties

Historic Properties are defined as any prehistoric or historic districts, sites, buildings, structures, or objects that are listed in, or eligible for listing in the National Register of Historic Places. To be eligible for listing, the property must meet at least one of the following criteria:

Criterion A – the property is associated with events that have made a significant contribution to the broad patterns of history.

Criterion B – the property is associated with lives of persons significant in our past.

Criterion C – the property embodies the distinctive characteristics of a type, period, or method of construction.

Criterion D – the property has yielded or may be likely to yield, information important in prehistory or history.

Historic Properties

Historic Properties are defined as any prehistoric or historic districts, sites, buildings, structures, or objects that are listed in, or eligible for listing in the National Register of Historic Places. To be eligible for listing, the property must meet at least one of the following criteria:

Criterion A – the property is associated with events that have made a significant contribution to the broad patterns of history.

Criterion B – the property is associated with lives of persons significant in our past.

Criterion C – the property embodies the distinctive characteristics of a type, period, or method of construction.

Criterion D – the property has yielded or may be likely to yield, information important in prehistory or history.

