

USDOT OIG/FHWA Fraud Awareness & Prevention Training

US DOT OIG/FHWA
Fraud Awareness &
Prevention Training

The Federal Highway Administration, Colorado Division invites you to a free web-based training conducted by the US Department of Transportation Office of the Inspector General (OIG). The session will be presented by Special Agent Jason Bunch of the OIG on March 7, 2012 from 10:00 am to Noon. Topics will include:

- Mission and Priorities
- Fraud Discovery, Schemes, and Indicators
- Fraud and Case Studies
- Detection and Deterrence of Fraud
- Stimulus Overview

The training will be conducted using telephone and web conferencing technology. To attend the training, please connect to the phone and web information as follows:

Web Information:

<http://fhwa.adobeconnect.com/codiv/>

- Please log in as a guest
- Please be sure to check your connection prior to the day of the training to ensure you have the appropriate software installed

Phone Information:

877-873-8017

Participant Code: 8750702

For more information, please contact Dustin Bailey of the FHWA Colorado Division via email at dustin.bailey@dot.gov or phone at 720-963-2019.

