

Improve safety in the whole corridor

Maximize intersection operational efficiency

Maximize corridor-wide operational efficiency

Maximize the number of people able to move through the corridor

Improve transit travel times and increase ridership

Increase opportunity for bicycle commuting and connectivity to the bicycle and pedestrian network