

Station Values

Links with the regional trail and greenway systems

Potential for new development, housing, or activity centers

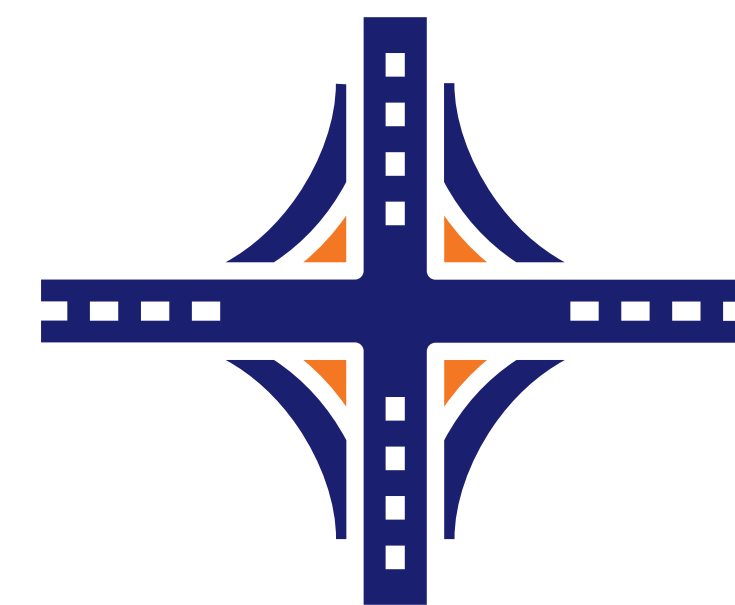

Cost and funding feasibility

Connections with other transit such as RTD rail stations or bus lines

Alignment with the big-picture vision that the City and County has already set for the areas surrounding a potential station

Access to the regional highway and arterials network

Proximity to an existing population or activity center