Stay away from construction equipment even if it is not on.

Be aware of equipment moving in and out of construction zones.

Avoid going near holes in the ground.

Look for signs that are obstructing a crosswalk or say a sidewalk is closed.

Public access is prohibited in the construction zone at all times.

Watch construction activities from a safe distance.

Look both ways before crossing the street.

Hold hands when walking with young children near the construction zone.