

Resources that will be Evaluated in the EA

Air quality

Archaeological properties

Aquatic resources and fisheries

Cumulative impacts (due to this project combined with effects of other reasonably foreseeable future projects)

Economics (Effect to businesses, employment)

Environmental Justice (effects to low income and minority populations)

Farmlands – no farmlands in study area

Floodplains

Hazardous materials

Historic properties

Land Use (existing and planned land uses)

Noise (existing and future)

Noxious weeds

Paleontological resources

Recreational uses

Right-of-Way Needed

Safety (vehicles, pedestrians, bicyclists)

Section 4(f) (parks, recreation sites, wildlife refuges, historic properties)

Sites of religious or cultural importance to Native American tribes

Social and Community Resources (Community facilities, effects to communities, etc.)

Terrestrial wildlife

Threatened or endangered species (plants or animals)

Traffic and transportation impacts (including congestion, travel time, effects to pedestrian and bicyclists)

Vegetation

Visual resources (changes in viewsheds or visual conditions)

Water quality

Wetlands and creeks

