

Changes to Services from 2008 CO ICB Study

Intercity Services

Since the 2008 study was completed a number of routes and stations have been added to the network.

New routes include:

- Alamosa/Gunnison to Denver route operated by Black Hills Stage Lines
- Pueblo to Wichita route operated by Prestige Bus Lines
- Salida to Pueblo route operated by Chaffee Shuttle
- Denver-Steamboat Springs - Salt Lake City route operated by Greyhound
- Durango to Grand Junction route operated by SUCAP - starts May, 2013

New stations include:

- Salida intermodal center
- Pueblo Transit station now accommodates intercity bus

Provider changes include:

- All former TNM&O service are now listed under Greyhound
- Powder River / Coach USA is now operating as Horizon Coach / Coach USA
- Black Hills Stage Lines is now operating as Arrow / Black Hills Stage Line

Regional Services

There are many regional service changes that have occurred since the 2008 study or are occurring in the near future. These include:

- FREX, operated by Mountain Metropolitan Transit, was discontinued in 2012
- FLEX, operated by Transfort, was initiated in 2010
- Fresh Tracks is a new service serving the “resort-to-resort” trips for skiers
- IntraWest Resorts Employee Shuttle was discontinued
- Fairplay to Breckenridge feeder route operated by Blue River Shuttle will begin February 2013
- RTD’s West light rail line will open April 2013
- RFTA is opening their BRT service in the Roaring Fork Valley September of 2013.
- RTD’s commuter rail service to DIA will open in 2016