

Concepts that Shaped the Project

Many individual ideas and concepts we heard from the community were included in the final plan for the corridor, a few examples of which are illustrated in this booklet. "You Said" represents an actual statement we received. "We Listened" explains how that concept was incorporated into the project.