

Sponsored by Colorado's Teen Motor Vehicle Leadership Alliance

DRIVERS THAT USE HANDHELD
DEVICES ARE FOUR TIMES MORE
LIKELY TO GET INTO CRASHES.

DON'T BE ONE OF THEM.

The Colorado General Assembly passed a law that bans talking or texting on cell phones by drivers under the age of 18. The law also forbids drivers age 18 and over from texting while driving.