

TEEN DRIVING ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Driver's Seat is a statewide campaign from the Colorado Department of Transportation to help Colorado teens know the law and become safer drivers.

Following are suggested announcements that could be used during daily public address announcements, included in daily bulletins or included on the school Web site:

1. Here's a reminder for all of you new drivers.
Bet you got a lot smarter over the summer, huh?
Even if you're a genius, don't talk on your phone or text while you drive.
You're in The Driver's Seat. Drive Smart.

2. Here's a reminder for all of you new drivers.
New year. New friends.
Remember, with a restricted license you can't drive them around until you've had your license for six months.
You're in The Driver's Seat. Rule wisely.

3. Here's a reminder for all of you new drivers.
In here you need a hall pass. But in your car, you rule.
Make your friends buckle up. Or make them walk. It's the law. Don't get a ticket.
